SEVENTY-FIVE years of service to property owners by ever meeting the full measure of its obligations has placed the SPRINGFIELD high in the confidence of all who are familiar with its record.

The character of this old line, New England company has been established by the tests of three-quarters of a century.

SPRINGFIELD FIRE & MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY

1849 - - 1924

SPRINGFIELD, MASS.

Sixty-Four Years of Service

Age is not the chief pride of this company.

But all these years have helped to build a modern and progressive Insurance Service today offered to Agent and Policyholder alike. Our basic plan of Home Office Cooperation includes modern selling helps considered among the most successful in operation; an excellent Policyholders' Service Bureau and a genuine desire and effort to assist our field force at all times.

Men of the right caliber, will find opportunities in our Agency Force. For information, address:

Peoria Life Insurance Company

Peoria, Illinois

Big enough to be equipped with every facility for rendering complete service to Policyholders and Agency Force—small enough for personal friendly contact between its officers and every agent in the field.

Old enough to have an established reputation for giving back just a little more than it takes: to enjoy an unusual degree of confidence, the result of years of conscientious, dependable service—young enough to look to the future rather than the past, to be constantly opening new territory and developing new opportunities for the benefit of its Agency Force.

Conservative enough to conduct its business according to the most approved practices of legal reserve life insurance—progressive enough to offer to its policyholders the most up-to-date policy features; and the most liberal cooperation to its agents.

Publishers' Announcement

During the last fifty-one years The Insurance Year Book has been published annually, and has increased in size with the expansion of the insurance business, new features having been added to its mass of information as the conditions demanded. The publishers therefore take pleasure in presenting the fifty-second annual edition, and in acknowledging the widespread recognition that has been accorded this publication, both in this country and abroad.

The 1924 edition of the Year Book is issued in three volumes, one being devoted to Life Insurance, one to Casualty, Surety and Miscellaneous Insurance, and the other to Fire and Marine Insurance. Each volume contains the standard statistics regarding companies and their transactions that are necessary to perfect their history from year to year. These statistics are brought forward to include their transactions to December 31, 1923. Some of the principal features of this volume are briefly summarized as follows:

FIRE AND MARINE VOLUME

The section entitled "Reports of Fire Insurance Companies" presents information more or less exhaustive concerning nearly 1,000 fire and marine insurance organizations (including unlicensed companies).

The importance of the fire and marine insurance transactions in the United States is indicated by the grand totals for 1923 here exhibited, taken from the Recapitulation Tables of the Fire and Marine Volume of the Insurance Year Book:

Number of companies	879	Total income	$1,040,006,632
Capital paid up (U. S. cos.)	$211,164,696	Losses paid	519,603,258
Assets	1,828,367,552	Dividends (am. cos. incl. mut.)	84,983,874
Surplus	588,571,143	Expenses	392,011,136
Net premiums	914,622,222	Total expenditures	996,598,268

Fire Departments and Water Supply is the title of a department in which is given extensive information as to the fire protection of 3,585 cities and towns in the United States and Canada. This department occupies 306 pages.

The Directory of Insurance Agents occupies about 200 pages, 4 columns to the page, and includes about 50,000 names (30,000 of whom write fire insurance), being the most comprehensive list of its kind extant.

A list of Independent Fire Adjusters embraces about 2,500 names.

The list of Attorneys and Counsellors specializing in insurance occupies about 40 pages and includes about 4,000 names.

Universities, Colleges and Insurance Societies conducting Insurance Classes are also listed.

The list of Companies Failed or Retired contains about 3,300 names.

Data are presented as to insurance companies in about 95 Foreign Countries.

The officers of over 400 Underwriters' Organizations are given.

A list of Rating Bureaus is presented.

The Premium Receipts of individual companies are tabulated for 12 cities.

Notable Conflagrations in the World's History comprise over 400 such events from B. C. 1897 to A. D. 1924.

The list of Large Fires in the United States and Canada embraces about 250 fires occurring in the last 200 years, each causing a considerable loss.

In addition to the foregoing, there is much other useful information presented regarding various features of the insurance business, each adding its quota to the value of this volume, which contains over 1,200 pages. The Life volume also embraces about 1,400 pages, and the Casualty, Surety and Miscellaneous volume about 1,200 pages, comprehensively covering their peculiar fields.

Our thanks are due to the heads of Insurance Departments of the various States and to officers of companies for their courtesy and promptness in furnishing us with desired information.

Grow With a Growing Company

THE INTERNATIONAL LIFE

Closed the year of 1923 with $162,000,000 of Insurance in force, and expects to close 1924 with

$250,000,000

The Loyalty of Our Agency Force makes us confident that we will reach our expectations for 1924. They appreciate the co-operation afforded by the Home Office organization and the Management fully appreciates the value of its field force. This group of high class Life men form the foundation for the steady growth of the International Life.

Policy Contracts That Appeal to the Insuring Public make them desirable and a real pleasure to sell. We have recently revised all policy contracts issued by this Company and made a complete revision of the rate book. The features of the New Triple Option and Special Combination policies mark them as up-to-the-minute life insurance contracts covering every contingency of life.

THE POLICY CONTRACTS OF THE ROYAL UNION LIFE INSURANCE CO.

Are Essentially The Force Behind The Company's Progressive And Successful Agency Organization.

1. GUARANTEE PREMIUM REDUCTION

Guaranteed Coupons, 20 Payment Life policy—If coupons are left to accumulate at interest may be surrendered for paid up participating policy at end of 13 to 14 years; or, guarantees back more at end of 20 years than total premiums paid. May be surrendered for participating paid-up life or endowment policy, or life annuity.

2. ORDINARY LIFE COUPON (O. G. S.)

Last word in thrift and savings coupled with life insurance. By coupons may be made a paid-up policy in 11 to 22 years, or endowment in 25 years. In event of death gives protection at ordinary life rates and returns coupons at compound interest.

3. ANNAUAL INCOME CONTRACT

Guarantees the beneficiary in event of insured's death before 65, $1,000 annually for 20 years and then a lump sum of $10,000, making $30,000 in all; or when insured reaches 65 pays $1,000 annually as long as he lives, (guaranteed for 20 years.)

4. ENDOWMENT AT AGE 60, 65 OR 70

An excellent policy for men of all ages, and especially attractive to the young and middle aged. Insurance at low cost and matures at a proper age. On both Continuous Premiums and 20 Payment plans. Participating and Non-Participating.

5. SINGLE PREMIUM ENDOWMENTS

Paid for with one payment, no lapses on this one. Maturity dates in 10 to 30 years. Gives insured advantages of survivorship. Participating.

6. CONTINUOUS PREMIUM ENDOWMENT AGE 85

Straight long term endowment, next to Whole Life—Matures at age 85 for face amount. Low cost. Both participating and non-participating.

7. LIMITED PAY ENDOWMENT AGE 85

Benefits of the continuous premium but paid up in 10, 15 or 20 years. Both participating and non-participating.

8. ENDOWMENT INSURANCE

Not only insurance but endowment to the insured himself at end of a definite number of years, 10-40. Both participating and non-participating. Enjoy both thrift and protection.

9. TERM INSURANCE

5-10-15 or 20-year term protection with privilege of converting to more substantial forms of life or endowment insurance.

10. MONTHLY INCOME

Both Ordinary and 20 Payment. Guarantees Monthly income for 20 years and as long thereafter as payee shall live. Guarantees that the proceeds of your life insurance shall go to those for whom you intended it. Not subject to bad investment.

11. GUARANTEED ALLOTMENT

Annual dividend with guaranteed coupons on Ordinary and 20 Pay forms. Good returns for premium expended.

12. SELECT RISK

On Ordinary and 20 Payment Life form. The low cost premium down to bed rock, issued on select lives only—a winner for the agent.

13. JUVENILE POLICY OR CHILD'S ENDOWMENT

Provides an educational fund for children ready for use in 10, 15 or 20 years.

14. BUSINESS INSURANCE

A policy that furnishes mutual protection for partners in business or that will insure an important officer or employee in favor of a corporation or business.

Provident Mutual
Life Insurance Company
of Philadelphia
PENNSYLVANIA

The Provident has emphasized the greater advantage to the insured of Old Age Protection policies. The advantage, however, is not only to the insured. Provident agents profit greatly from the active co-operation of living policyholders who are eager to testify their satisfaction with the form of policy which protects their old age.

A new feature is the Retirement Life Income Contract, particularly suited to men or women without dependents who are seeking an income in old age, and for which a medical examination is not required unless it is desired to add the Total and Permanent Disability Feature.

Reports of Fire Insurance Companies

INTRODUCTION

It is frequently the case that the financial or credit men of mercantile and manufacturing establishments are obliged to pass upon the strength and desirability of various fire insurance companies, for the protection of their trade interests, and are thus made to realize the importance of obtaining their insurance from safe and strong companies. Sometimes they find it very difficult to secure an adequate volume of good insurance to cover their large properties. The conditions which had existed prior to the great San Francisco conflagration of April 18-21, 1906, not having been fully met by the legally authorized fire insurance companies, had led to the formation of numerous companies and Lloyds associations, and, later, to the organization of many inter-insurance associations, some of which had not gone through the formality of securing licenses from the State insurance officials of their respective States, and had also tempted a considerable number of foreign companies to write "surplus line" risks without making any deposit of cash or securities in this country or securing a license from any State Insurance Department. Following the conflagration, because of a greater scarcity of insurance, numerous new companies were organized—in fact, there are new ones every year—and business houses, requiring considerable lines of insurance find themselves dependent, to some extent, upon such companies, many of which have ample assets to conduct business along reasonable lines, although several have already gone out of business.

An outgrowth of these conditions, in conjunction with the desire of most insurance agents and business men to have at hand some authority on the standing of the fire insurance companies, both licensed and unlicensed, with which they deal from time to time, has been a realization of the desirability of not only having all such information embraced within a single volume, instead of scattered through numerous different State reports and loose documents, but of having, equally available, sufficient details as to assets, liabilities, etc., to enable those interested in any particular company to judge as to its actual standing. The conditions which have prevailed since the war have also engendered greater interest in the standing of marine insurance companies. To meet these requirements, this section of The Insurance Year Book has been prepared. We trust that it will be found serviceable in giving subscribers correct information as to the standing of concerns whose policies they may be offered, and in saving them from dealing with unreliable companies. In this connection we suggest that subscribers read carefully the remarks at the head of each of the respective groups of organizations.

Value of Personal estates left by 1,000 typical Employees of several hundred Employers $750,000.
Value of these estates when amplified by Travelers Group insurance payments $1,770,000

Do Wage-Earners Need Group Insurance?

And, will the $500, $1,000, or $2,000 paid to them under a Group Policy amount to enough to be of any value?

These are two questions that an employer asks before buying Travelers Group Insurance for his employees. The answers to these questions are contained in the following statistics based on a study of 1,000 consecutive death claims under Travelers Group Policies:

346 left no estate in the form of quick assets,
300 left less than $500 each,
139 left from $500 to $999,
127 left from $1,000 to $1,999,
62 left from $2,000 to $4,999,
26 left $5,000 and over.

The total personal estates of the thousand group certificate-holders was about $750,000, an average of $750 each. The total amount paid to their families under their Travelers Group Policies was approximately $1,020,000, an average of $1,020 each. Thus Group Insurance increased the average estate of these workers 136 per cent.

Such an increase meant, in many cases, that mortgages could be paid off and homes kept in the family, that children could remain in school, that bills could be paid and the bereaved family could start square with the world instead of overburdened with debt. As long as they live, members of these 1,000 families will appreciate the generosity of the donors of this Group Insurance.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized and began business in Connecticut in 1819, with a capital stock, $150,000, of which $15,000 was paid in at once. By 1864, the capital had been increased to $2,250,000 by means of $180,000 paid in, and $2,055,000 of stock dividends, increases having been made as follows: To $200,000 in 1822; to $250,000 in 1846; to $300,000 in 1849; to $500,000 in 1854; to $1,000,000 in 1857; to $1,500,000 in 1859; to $2,250,000 in 1864. In 1866, increase was made to $3,000,000 by stock dividend. Capital was reduced, 1871, to $1,500,000, and increased again to $3,000,000 by stockholders' payment of $1,500,000. Capital increased, 1881, to $4,000,000 by stock sale, and in 1910 to $5,000,000, the $1,000,000 of new stock, par value $100, selling at $200 per share, thereby adding $1,000,000 to surplus.

To the original capital another $150,000 was added in 1820 and the company was authorized to write life insurance and grant annuities, the new capital being pledged to protect this business. Not until 1850 was use made of the privilege to write life insurance and grant annuities. The annuity business became considerable and in 1853 the company charter was amended to make from the annuity department a separate corporation with the title Aetna Life Insurance Company, the present corporation of that name. Inland marine risks were authorized to be included in coverage written, by charter amendment of 1839. Stock, par value, $100 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, $318.60; latest sale 525%.

Conflagration losses: New York, 1845, $120,000; St. Louis, 1849, $125,000; Chillicothe, Ohio, 1852, $104,000; Montreal, 1852, $105,000; Portland, Me., 1866, $170,000; Vicksburg, 1867, $110,000; Chicago, 1871, $3,782,000; Boston, 1872, $1,635,000; St. John, N. B., 1878, $262,000; Ottawa, Can., 1900, $198,000; Jacksonville, Fla., 1901, $168,000; Baltimore, 1904, $727,000; Toronto, 1904, $181,000; San Francisco, 1906, $2,910,893.

Special Deposits: Can., $613,866; Ga., $9,700; Va., $110,760; N. M., $9,800; N. C., $24,250; Cuba, $73,500.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The company's underwriting policy is conservative and very successful. Among the leaders in the business, the Aetna has always been progressive, and its administration capable and highly esteemed by property owners and agents. It has paid substantial dividends, and in general, has steadily increased its surplus and shown a growing premium income. Recent underwriting and investment results: 1923, underwriting loss, $613,953; investment profit, $1,241,700; 1922, underwriting profit, $483,290; investment profit, $3,312,959; 1921, underwriting loss, $904,605; investment gain, $1,251,432; 1920, underwriting loss, $302,377; investment gain, $772,161; 1919, underwriting profit, $1,934,756, investment gain, $1,055,055.

This company guarantees policies issued under the title Aetna Fire Underwriters Agency.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: National Board of Fire Underwriters, Eastern Union, Western Union, South-Eastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association, Mainland Board of Fire Underwriters, New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters, Nova Scotia Board of Fire Underwriters, Western Insurance Bureau, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, National Automobile Underwriters Conference and sectional conferences.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company began business in New Jersey in 1846 as the American Mutual Fire and Marine Insurance Co. After organization, the capital, in the form of scrip, was gradually increased by dividends from profits until in 1872 it stood at $600,000, and in addition the company had $291,907, surplus. Reorganization, 1872, put company on stock basis with $600,000 scrip as capital. No assessment has ever been levied upon stockholders, but they paid in $150,000 new capital and $300,295 surplus in 1907, and $250,000 new capital in 1909. In 1917, $1,000,000 was transferred from surplus to capital and in 1921, $500,000 was added to capital by new stock sale at 200% or $10 per share. Capital increased in 1923 by $500,000, to $3,000,000 by sale at par. Company has $300,000 special reserve not included in its stated surplus. In 1889 the business of the company was largely increased by its reinsuring the risks of the Rockford Insurance Company of Rockford, Ill. The American of Newark controls stock of the Columbia of Dayton. Stock, par value is $5 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, 226.08%; latest sale, 380%. Conflagration losses: Chicago, 1871, $510; Paterson, 1902, $90,298; Baltimore, 1904, $244,072; San Francisco, 1906, $1,109,836; Bangor, Me., 1911, $21,269; Salem, Mass., 1914, $63,667. HISTORICAL DATA

Company organized in New York, December, 1915, with initial capital, $200,000 paid in, and $100,000 surplus; began business March 1, 1916. Stock par value, $100 per share, had been sold at $150 and there had been no organization expenses. Surplus was increased, 1917, by contribution of $300,000. Capital increases: 1918 to $300,000, entire new issue taken at $500 per share thereby adding $400,000 to surplus; 1919 to $400,000 by stock dividend, and to $600,000 by sale of new stock at 400%, thus adding $600,000 to surplus. January 1, 1919, company reinsured outstanding fire risks of the U. S. Branch of the Prussian National Fire of Stettin, Germany, involving unearned premiums of about $350,000. July, 1920, company ceased writing fire business, reinsuring its risks in the present Inter-Ocean Reinsurance Co., Cedar Rapids, Ia. The company liquidated its marine loss account, its fire business having been reinsured and the company retired from a number of states with the exception of New York state.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized 1920, in New York, for the purpose of writing fire reinsurance. It began business in 1922, after purchasing and taking over the United States Branch assets and business of the Jakor Insurance Company of Moscow, effective January 1, 1922. Preferred capital stock to the amount of $230,000 was redeemed and cancelled on March 10, 1923. Capital stock is now $500,000. Stock, par value, is $20 a share; book value, December 31, 1923, 185.33%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $20,000; net, $6,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned $6,500 of capital stock, the remainder being owned by the Jakor of Moscow ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Under the careful management of experienced insurance executives, the net premium income of this company's first year of operation was very substantial and with fairly reasonable operating expenses and no excessive losses and the payment of a liberal dividend to stockholders is indicative of progress and an aggressive disposition on the part of the management. There was, however, in 1922, an underwriting loss only in part offset by good profits from excellent investments. The initial underwriting loss was caused mostly by the necessity for building up required reserves. The ratio of earned premium to premium income was very low in 1922, but it was due to the fact that by far the greater portion of this premium income (75%) was derived from the portfolio of unearned premiums of the Jakor Insurance Company, the major portion of which in turn was one year business which expired during the preceding year. The usual averages were further disturbed by the fact that the Anchor retroceded 50% of its business on the date of assumption of the Jakor business, January 1, 1922, and another 25% of its business September 30, 1922. What is true of the premium reserve is equally true of the outstanding losses. Underwriting and investment results: 1923, underwriting loss, $170,220 investment gain $51,614; 1922: underwriting loss, $256,647; investment profit, $148,224.

BOARD MEMBERSHIP: National Board of Fire Underwriters.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, motor vehicle, hail, tornado, lightning, sprinkler leakage, riot and civil commotion, earthquake and explosion.

HISTORICAL DATA

Company organized January 17, 1922, in Mississippi, and began business February 27 of that year with a paid-in capital and surplus of $100,000 each. Authorized capital is $1,000,000. George D. Reynolds was the principal organizer. He also organized the Mississippi Fire Insurance Co. Stock, par value, $10 a share, was sold at double par, with promotional expenses limited to 15 % of the selling price. By the end of 1922, paid-in capital amounted to $278,160, and $218,649 had been contributed to surplus from stock sale. Promotion cost to company was about 10¼ %. Capital increased $28,890 during year 1923, by paid-in stock subscriptions. January 17, 1923, it was decided to discontinue selling stock. Stock, par value, $10; book value, December 31, 1923, 182.33 %; latest sale, 250 %.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The company's management is capable and experienced by reason of former insurance and banking connections of considerable prominence. R. E. Kennington, president, is also well-known as a mercantile business man and financier. The company's executive management is in good repute. Operating surplus is ample and the company's general disposition is progressive, although underwriting results of the first year's business showed a loss of $39,411, which, however, in part, was offset by a profit of $12,655 from its well-secured investments. It does a substantial volume of business. Underwriting loss in 1923, $1,038; investment profit, $32,797.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, lightning, tornado, automobile, sprinkler leakage, use and occupancy, profits.

CENTRAL FEDERAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, Davenport, Ia.

President, Charles Shuler; First Vice-President and General Manager, W. L. Taylor; Vice-President, George E. Decker; Secretary and Treasurer, Frank B. Yetter; Assistant Secretary and Manager, W. L. Pettibone; Assistant Secretary and Assistant Treasurer, Herman Staak, General Counsel, Charles Grilk. Organized, 1924.

Preparatory to commencing business, this company was examined by the Iowa Insurance Department as of May 10, 1924. The financial statement as of that date was as follows: Cash, $195,917; government bonds, $23,100; real estate farm mortgages, $70,000; accrued interest, $651; total assets, $289,668; cash capital, $200,000; net surplus, $89,668.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized early in 1924 and licensed in May by the Iowa Insurance Department. The stockholders paid in $200,000 capital and $100,000 surplus. There was no commission for sale of the stock, and about $11,000 of the surplus was used in getting the company ready for operation, including the making of agents' registers, printing policies and necessary supplies, the purchase of furniture, fixtures, maps, map cases, etc. Up to the time of beginning business no salary or compensation was paid to any director or officers, except the salary of the underwriting manager, who was getting the company in shape to begin business. The company was expected to begin business in other states as soon as arrangements could be made therefor, the primary object being to serve the agents of the Federal Surety Company throughout the twenty-two States in which that company operates.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company was organized by those interested in the Federal Surety Company, and has the same officers and directors as that company, except Mr. Pettibone, who will devote all his time to the fire company. The general management and policies of the company will be in charge of W. L. Taylor, general manager of the Federal Surety. The agents will be under the supervision of the same agency department as those of the Federal Surety Company, but the field supervision for the fire company will be under the direction of Clyde C. Smith, executive special agent, who was formerly with the National Liberty Insurance Company. Mr. Pettibone has had a long experience in the insurance business, having for many years been in the western field, and later manager of the reinsurance department of the Great American of New York. The Central Federal Fire Insurance Company will write all the lines usually written by a fire company, and has an automatic treaty with the United States Fire Insurance Company of New York which will enable the Central Federal to write large lines.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was chartered and sale of its stock started in late November, 1920. It was licensed by the Illinois Insurance Department, February 15, 1922 and began business at once with an authorized capital of $1,000,000 fully paid in and a paid in surplus of $573,344, and $507,573 additional surplus was paid in during 1922. Stock was sold for the most part in small lots and at one price, $25 a share. Members of the O'Brien Insurance Agency of Chicago, were prominently identified with the company's organization and are among the principal factors in its operation. Promotional expenses were limited to 15%. The company guarantees policies in Ill. issued under the name Chicago Underwriters Agency Department. Stock, par value, $10; book value, December 31, 1923, 163.50%. The company owns 80 shares of the Glens Falls Ins. Co.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The company did a substantial amount of business in its initial full year of operation. It has strong financial backing and the management is capable, conservative and is in good standing in insurance circles. For so young a company, it has a particularly large and valuable group of agents. The 1922 and 1923 underwriting operations resulted in a loss, due for the most part to the necessity for establishing required reserves. Profits from investments have been very satisfactory. The company has broadened its activities and has a definite schedule of further expansion. The directors, all substantial insurance and business men, on December 31, 1923, owned $49,820 of stock. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000, net, $25,000. Underwriting and investment results in 1923, underwriting loss, $288,413, investment profit, $76,628, 1922: Underwriting loss, $228,296; investment profit, $34,375.

BOARD MEMBERSHIP: National Board of Fire Underwriters.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, motor vehicle, tornado, sprinkler leakage, riot and civil commotion, explosion, lightning, use and occupancy.

HISTORICAL DATA

Company organized, May, 1911, in Michigan, with $500,000 authorized capital, which in April, 1913, was increased to $1,000-000. Began business February 27, 1913, with cash capital of $500,000 and net surplus, $217,738. Capital increased: 1913, by payment on subscription, to $963,675; 1917, to $964,175; and 1918, to $976,675; reduced in 1922 to $650,000. Principal promoters were John G. Ewing and Sherman Steele, professors at Notre Dame and St. Louis Universities, respectively, and M. W. Welsh. Stock was sold largely to prominent members of the Knights of Columbus. Promotional expense was high, stock being sold on contract, for commission of 27½% on first $500,000 and 25% on second $500,000. Stock, par value $25 per share, was sold at $50 a share, method of subscription payment being 40% initially in cash, 40% at end of three months, and 20% six months later. J. G. Ewing and M. W. Welsh resigned April 10, 1915, and were succeeded by T. A. Lawler, as president, and H. P. Orr, secretary. Home office was moved from Detroit to Lansing, January 26, 1920. June 23, 1922, stockholders authorized reduction of capital to $488,337 and absorption of Columbian, of Indianapolis. Treasury stock was issued in exchange for that of the Columbian, Indianapolis, thus increasing the outstanding capital stock. Stock, par value, $25; book value, December 31, 1923, 143.46%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $225,000; net, $50,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned $88,030 of capital stock.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Stockholders of the company, in 1921, disagreed as to soundness and efficiency of the company's management, some proposing a change. But at a special meeting, June 24, 1921, management in the hands of T. A. Lawler, president, was sustained. J. E. Murphy, secretary and treasurer, resigned and was succeeded by W. D. Lawrence. Other changes, to present officers, were made in 1923. Underwriting and investment results for recent years: 1919, underwriting loss, $47,699, investment profit, $84,081; 1920, underwriting loss, $52,929, investment profit, $97,538; 1921, underwriting loss, $172,828, investment profit, $103,020; 1922, underwriting loss, $324,072, investment profit, $64,502; 1923, underwriting loss, $119,334, investment gain, $191,027.

The business volume is moderate. Its investments and loss paying reputation are good. It paid cash dividend of $48,834 in 1921, and $65,000 in 1923.

HISTORICAL DATA

Company incorporated and began business, 1859, in New York, with authorized capital, $200,000. Chicago conflagration, 1871, reduced capital from $400,000 to $100,000 and par shares from $100 to $25. Stockholders then paid in an additional $100,000, bringing capital to $200,000. This assessment was returned to stockholders in 1889 by payment of 50% dividend. In 1922, a stock dividend of 100%, paid from surplus, increased the capital from $200,000 to $400,000. Conflagration losses: Chicago, 1871, $400,000; Boston, 1872, $70,000; Lynn, 1889, $26,000; Salem, 1914, $34,000. Stock, par value, $25; book value, December 31, 1923, 204.03%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000; net, $20,000.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Company has sound backing and shows progressive disposition under capable and efficient management. Underwriting and investment results in the last five years: 1919, underwriting profit, $24,140, investment profit, $26,907; 1920, underwriting profit, $7,288, investment profit, $18,205; 1921, underwriting profit, $17,737, investment profit, $58,603; 1922, underwriting profit, $9,748, investment profit, $200,495; 1923, underwriting loss, $114,103, investment gain, $58,763. Company operates with ample surplus, has paid regular 10% dividend for many years; has built premium income with regularity on sound and conservative volume of business; has high grade investments; settles loss claims promptly, and in every respect has an excellent reputation. Majority of stock owned by the Glens Falls Ins. Co.

HISTORICAL DATA

Company incorporated and began business, 1906, in N. C., with $500,000 paid up capital and $250,000 initial surplus. R. M. Miller, Jr., president American Cotton Manufacturers Association, was largely interested in organization. In 1909, it absorbed North State Fire, of Greensboro, N. C. Company limited field of operation to local business only, by reinsuring, 1911–1915, practically all business in other states, Pacific coast business going to Globe & Rutgers. In 1920, company began expansion again into wider territory. Stock, par value, $50 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, 204.53%; latest sale, 200%. Deposits in states: N. Y., $9,400; Va., $28,200; Mass., $9,400; Ga., $10,000. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $50,000; net, $20,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned $210,450 of stock. The report of examination as of December 31, 1923, in Va., N. C. and S. C. gives the company total admitted assets amounting to $1,335,619 and a net surplus of $522,676.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Reorganization changes in 1916 determined a new basis of operation, sound and conservative, which has enabled the company to make progress. It has ample surplus substantially advancing premium income and has paid good dividends. Underwriting and investment results in the last five years: 1919, underwriting profit, $50,545, investment profit, $38,260; 1920, underwriting profit, $1,139, investment profit, $62,157; 1921, underwriting loss, $33,902, investment profit, $98,975; 1922, underwriting loss, $101,452, investment profit, $107,303; 1923, underwriting profit, $128,443, investment profit, $73,301. H. R. Bush, president, in charge of underwriting, also manages Va., N. C. and S. C. business of the American, Newark; the Yorksh,re, of York, Eng.; the Caledonian, of Edinburgh, Scot.; and the California, San Francisco Prominent local business men and financiers form the directorate. Early in 1923, a contract was made whereby the Hartford Fire agreed to assume 90% of the Dixie's outstanding business, and 90% of its writings during the following 5 years. The Blades-Robinson interests were opposed to this contract, but the controversy was terminated in June, 1924, by the purchase of the Blades-Robinson stock holdings by supporters of President Bush. Dividends paid, 1914–1923, 6%; total since organization, $340,000. Investments are high grade. It has estimable loss-paying record.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized February 27, 1912, in N. J., with an authorized capital stock of $100,000, divided into 4,000 shares, par value, $25 each and on December 1, 1913, the authorized capital was increased to $200,000 and subsequently to $400,000. Business began in May, 1913, with a paid-in capital of $100,000 and $72,000 surplus; it was further increased in November, 1913, to $200,000 and $72,000 surplus added by cash subscriptions. At the time this company was organized, the New Jersey and Eagle Assurance Company was also incorporated, but subsequently s stockholders exchanged their stock for shares of the Eagle Fire and the New Jersey & Eagle authorized capital stock was reduced to $2,000. Capital of the Eagle Fire was increased to $250,000 in April, 1917, with $40,000 added surplus. In June, 1918, par value of stock was reduced from $25 to $20, thereby transferring $50,000 from capital to surplus. At the same time, $50,000 capital and $62,500 surplus were paid in, thereby maintaining capital at $250,000. In April, 1919, capital was increased to $400,000 by a $150,000 payment with $187,500 paid to surplus. Deposit in N. J., $60,000. Stock, par value, $20; book value, December 31, 1923, 175.77%; latest sale, 215%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $75,000; net $18,750. The company was examined by the insurance department of N. J. in 1923.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company's management is capable and in excellent standing. It transacts a reinsurance business by treaty only throughout the United States. The Eagle has contracts with a number of companies whereby it retrocedes a portion of its reinsurance to them. The Eagle has well secured investments which have been remunerative. Underwriting and investment results in last five years: 1923, underwriting loss, $52,010, investment profits, $57,488; 1922 underwriting loss, $17,316; investment profit, $141,553; 1921, underwriting loss, $26,381; investment profit, $60,103; 1920, underwriting loss, $25,199; investment profit, $76,074; 1919, underwriting profit, $52,849; investment profit, $40,902. HISTORICAL DATA

Company organized, February 14, 1922, by merger of the Eureka F. & M., organized 1864, with the Security, organized 1881, both of Cincinnati. Stock control is held by the Indianola Oil Company, which owns all but a few shares. Stock, par value, $100 per share; book value, December 31, 1923; $336.34. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000; net, $20,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned $3,500 of stock. The company was examined by the Ohio Insurance Department in 1923.

Policies issued under the name Cincinnati Underwriters are guaranteed by the company.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The affairs of the merged companies had been ably managed and the business of their successor is capably carried on by a continuation of their combined administrations. With ample operating surplus and a substantial premium income in its first year, the company's disposition is progressive as its underwriting and investment results, since organization, also denote as follows: 1923, underwriting loss, $88,440, investment profit, $187,978; 1922, underwriting profit, $2,708; investment profit, $110,346; 1921, underwriting profit, $48,926; investment profit, $38,446. Good dividends were paid in the company's first year. Its predecessors had paid regular and liberal dividends. Company writes a conservative volume; has good grade investments; inherits a very estimable record of loss claim settlements and in general has an excellent reputation.

BOARD OF MEMBERSHIP: Western Insurance Bureau.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, tornado, motor vehicle, sprinkler leakage, riot and civil commotion.

HISTORICAL DATA

Company organized and began business, October, 1860, in Ia., operating practically on a mutual basis. In 1868, authorized capital was $100,000, $25,000 of which was paid in and $75,000 shown in stockholders' notes, at par value of stock, $100. Company declared $75,000 stock dividend in 1880, and in 1909 transferred $100,000 from surplus to capital, thereby increasing paid-up capital to $200,000. In 1920, it was bought by the America Fore Group and continued business. In October of 1922 $500,000 in cash were added to the assets, the capital being increased to $500,000, the surplus increased to a little over $500,000, and thereby giving the Company over a million dollars surplus to policyholders. Stock, par value, $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $231.53. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $400,000; net, $50,000.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Company is very progressive, successful, and has an excellent reputation both among agents and property owners as have all the companies under the same general management as the Continental, American Eagles and Fidelity Phenix, all of New York and all having Henry Evan, as Board chairman. The controlling shares of the stock are owned by the Fire Companies Building Corp. On ample operating surplus the company does a moderate volume of business. Underwriting and investment results in the last five years: 1923, underwriting profit, $1,110, investment profit, $95,740; 1922, underwriting profit, $11,113; investment profit, $90,590; 1921, underwriting loss, $2,680; investment profit, $111,551; 1920, underwriting profit, $15,624; investment profit, $48,950; 1919, underwriting loss, $57,672; investment profit, $53,137. Farm business, on which company takes notes for premiums, comprises the substantial part of its underwritings, bills receivable in practically all cases being considered good. In 1923, directors held only $700, par value, of the capital stock. It has high grade investments and has given uniform satisfaction in prompt and thorough handling of loss claims. Its reputation in general is excellent.

BOARD OF MEMBERSHIP: National Board of Fire Underwriters.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, hail, automobile, tornado and windstorm, explosion, lightning, inland marine, registered mail, earthquake, riot and civil commotion, sprinkler leakage and tourists' baggage.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized, August 7, 1918, in Colo., as the Federal Fire & Hail Insurance Company, with authorized and fully subscribed capital, $200,000. It began business March 6, 1920, with entire capital paid-in and subscribed surplus of $325,000. By charter amendment, in 1921 the present name was adopted. Original stock shares were, par value, $25 each. In June 1923 the company cancelled out all unpaid stock subscriptions amounting to $150,000, leaving net capital stock $50,000 fully paid. At same time par value was reduced from $50 to $10 and all old shareholders were given four shares of $10 stock for one share of old $50 stock. Stock, par value, $10 a share; book value, December 31, 1923, 136.67%.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The company though relatively small, is in good repute, and its loss ratios have averaged reasonably low. It guarantees policies issued under the title The Associated Federal Underwriters. It originally re-wrote its fire business handling only its own hail risks, but not long after organization began retaining all fire business as well. Underwriting and investment results, 1920, 1921 and 1922: 1922, underwriting loss, $23,125; investment loss, $964; 1921, underwriting loss, $8,357; investment profit, $7,591; 1920, underwriting loss, $3,664; investment loss, $2,865. The company has substantial backing.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, hail, tornado and automobile risks of various kinds.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company is an amalgamation of the Fidelity, of New York, and the Phenix, of Brooklyn, effected February 28, 1910. The Phenix was organized in 1853 with $1,000,000 capital, which was increased in 1906 by sale of stock, to $1,500,000, $1,000,000 of surplus being then paid in. The Fidelity was organized in 1906, with $1,000,000 capital; $1,000,000 surplus and $500,000 special fund for building the unearned premium reserve. During 1922 capital increased from $2,500,000 to $5,000,000. Operations of the amalgamated Fidelity-Phenix Company began March 1, 1910, with capital paid up in cash, $2,500,000, and net surplus, December 31, 1910, at $3,385,745. Henry Evans, chairman of the Board, handled the affairs of the Phenix with consummate ability, which effected the consolidation without the assistance of former Phenix executives, none of whom were retained. Deposits with States, etc.: Ga., $9,900; N. Mex., $9,400; N. C., $25,740; Va., $55,320; Canada, $568,768. Other companies under same control and management: Continental, New York; American Eagle, New York; and the Farmers of Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Underwriters' agencies' policies guaranteed: Phenix Underwriters, Fidelity Underwriters and (together with Continental) Fidelity Underwriters (in Canada). Stock, par value, $25 a share; book value, December 31, 1923, 362.52%; latest sale, 473%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $585,000; net, $400,000.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The Fidelity-Phenix is one of the largest American fire companies and has been progressive and quite successful in its operations, being under most capable administration and highly esteemed among property owners and agents. It is a member of the America Fore Group of companies, which assures its policies of additional strength, and associates it with other fire companies, of which Henry Evans is also Board chairman, and which have equally excellent reputations. With ample operating surplus, it does a large volume of well selected business, especially limiting its conflagration liability in cities. Recent underwriting and investment results: 1923 underwriting loss, $299,473; investment profit, $1,663,063; 1922' underwriting profit, $626,651, investment profit, $4,295,021; 1921, underwriting profit, $428,714, investment profit, $3,356,598; 1920, underwriting loss, $461,398, investment loss, $373,228; 1919, underwriting profit, $920,007, investment profit, $1,024,756; Financiers identified with powerful interests make up the directorate, which held, in 1923, $346,000, par value, of the capital stock. The company has regularly paid liberal dividends, has a substantial and increasing premium income, has an economical record of operation, has made high grade and profitable investments and has established a most estimable loss-paying reputation.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: National Board of Fire Underwriters, Western Union, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Western Underwriters Association, Mainland Board of Fire Underwriters, National Automobile Underwriters Conference and sectional conferences.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Insurance against loss or damage by fire, lightning, tornado, sprinkler leakage, inland marine, ocean marine, automobile, registered mail, riot and civil commotion, explosion and other insurance as granted by charter.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized, May 6, 1863, in Cal., and began business the following month with an original capital of $200,000. Stock, par value, was $10 per share. Capital was increased, 1865, to $500,000; stockholders were assessed $250,000 in 1871; capital reduced, 1873, to $300,000; increased, 1880, to $750,000; in 1886, to $1,000,000; in 1907, to $1,600,000; in 1920, to $3,000,000 at which it has since remained. Assessments and capital reductions were caused by exceptionally heavy conflagration losses as follows: Chicago, 1871, $529,365; Boston, 1872, $158,000; Virginia City, Nev., 1879, $126,402; Baltimore, 1904, $351,613; San Francisco, 1906, $11,100,000, gross, including losses of Home Fire and Marine and the Pacific Underwriters. A new company, styled the Firemens Fund Insurance Corporation, was organized in 1906 with $800,000 capital and $800,000 of subscribed surplus. It assumed, as of May 22, 1906, by reinsurance, all policies of the old company not involved in loss claims. On March 1, 1907, the old Fireman's Fund resumed control with a capital of $1,600,000, which was reduced in 1909 to $1,500,000, and received licenses from all states and territories in which it had formerly transacted business. Capital increased, 1920, to $3,000,000. Stock, par value, is $100 a share; book value, December 31, 1923, $251.77; latest sale, 365%. Deposits in States, etc.: Cal., $350,000; N. M., $10,000; Ga., $10,600; Va., $53,000; Can., $195,610. The Home Fire & Marine, of San Francisco, operates under practically the same management and control as the Fireman's Fund, and together they guarantee the policies of the Occidental Underwriters.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company is one of the largest and ranks among the leaders in the business, and has on a large volume of business, with capable management, been progressive and successful. Recent underwriting and investment results: 1923, underwriting profit, $66,331, investment profit, $878,472; 1922, underwriting loss, $560,418, investment profit, $1,230,761; 1921, underwriting loss, $1,518,083, investment profit, $1,142,241; 1920, underwriting loss, $985,228, investment profit, $661,440; 1919, underwriting profit, $1,029,774, investment profit, $607,987. Company has paid liberal dividends for many years, has shown substantial advances in premium income, has excellent investments, which are very profitable, and stands in meritorious repute among agents and property owners, in every way, including its treatment of loss claimants. The directorate is composed of prominent capitalists and bankers.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized and began business under the laws of New Jersey in 1855. Capital increased: 1880, from $400,000 to $500,000; 1888, to $600,000; 1889, to $1,000,000; 1916, to $1,250,000, with $504,285 paid in to surplus; and 1922, to $2,250,000, with $2,374,496 to surplus. In April, 1906, it took over the outstanding risks of the American Fire, of Boston. In September 1910 it reinsured the business of the Freeholders Insurance Company of Topeka, Kans. and in 1912 it reinsured all business of the western department of the Delaware Insurance Company of Philadelphia. In April, 1924 $750,000 was transferred from surplus to capital through the medium of a stock dividend of 33⅓%, making the capital $3,000,000. Since January, 1916, interests identified with this company have controlled by purchase the Girard Fire & Marine, of Philadelphia, Pa., and the Mechanics, of Philadelphia, Pa., and since August, 1922, the National-Ben Franklin, of Pittsburgh, all three being continued in operation as separate companies. On December 31, 1923 it bought the good will and name of the Keystone Underwriters of Pittsburgh from the companies then operating it and substituted for those companies the Firemens Insurance Company of Newark, Girard Fire & Marine Insurance Company of Philadelphia, Mechanics Insurance Company of Philadelphia, National-Ben Franklin Insurance Company of Pittsburgh and continued the Keystone Underwriters. It also operates the Firemen's Underwriters, whose policies it guarantees. It is a member of and does a foreign business through the American Foreign Insurance Association. HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized, November 13, 1912, in Connecticut, with special charter granted by the State General Assembly, as approved by the Governor. Carl Schreiner, Morgan G. Bulkely, and eleven other prominent insurance men of Hartford, organized this company; its charter reading "to carry on a reinsurance business and to make reinsurance on insurance risks of every kind or description undertaken by other companies, associations, corporations, or persons." Company began business January 1, 1913, with $500,000 paid-in capital, and a like amount of surplus. Its charter authorized capital increase up to $5,000,000. The Munich Reinsurance Company of Bavaria, Germany, owned 4,505 of the company's 5,000 shares when the recent war broke out. This stock was seized, in 1918, by the Alien Property Custodian, who sold it, May 13, 1920, at $175 a share, principally to ten insurance companies, as follows: Aetna Casualty & Surety Co., Hartford; Aetna (Fire) Insurance Co., Hartford; Aetna Life, Hartford; Automobile Insurance Company, Hartford; Connecticut General, Hartford; Hartford Fire, Hartford; Phoenix Mutual Life, Hartford; Preferred Accident, New York; Security Insurance Co., New Haven; and the United States Fidelity & Guaranty, Baltimore. Stock, par value, $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $244.17; latest sale, 220%. Largest amount insured in one hazard: gross, $75,000; net, $75,000.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company has a progressive disposition and is in good repute. Its present capable and conservative management has produced a substantial volume of business and ample and increasing surplus. Its management, headed by H. H. Stryker, president, and Samuel Ludlow, Jr., is capable and experienced. Prominent local insurance and professional men compose the directorate which, in 1923, owned $17,900 of the $500,000 capital stock. The company has high-grade investments, and in recent years has paid 10% dividends. Underwriting and investment results in the last five years have been: 1923, underwriting loss, $62,366, investment profit, $130,370; 1922, underwriting loss, $51,640, investment profit, $274,470; 1921, underwriting loss, $294,024; investment profit, $232,245; 1920, underwriting loss, $18,921, investment profit, $195,578; 1919, underwriting profit, $206,424, investment profit, $8,405

CLASSES OF REINSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, automobile, tornado, registered mail, sprinkler leakage, tourists' baggage, lightning, live stock, riot and civil commotion, explosion, fidelity and surety, burglary, accident and life.

HISTORICAL DATA

Company incorporated and began business 1829, in Pennsylvania, with $400,000 capital, shares, par value, $25 each. It passed successfully through many American conflagration crises, but owing to its losses in the San Francisco disaster in 1906 decreased capital from $400,000 to $100,000. It was, however, immediately, increased to $400,000 by an issue of new stock which also netted a premium of $300,000. Capital increased, 1910, to $500,000 by another issue of new stock, which, selling at a $25 premium, added $100,000 to surplus. The Franklin was purchased in 1915 by leading interests of the Home of New York, whose strength thus came behind it though the company continued to be operated separately. Other companies under same control: Home, N. Y.; City of New York, N. Y.; which with the Franklin are known as the Home Group. Conflagration losses: St. Louis, 1849, $294,855; Chicago, 1871, $635,429; Boston, 1872, $451,505; Baltimore, 1904, $153,914; San Francisco, 1906, $1,325,882. Deposits in States: Va., $50,802; N. C., $9,000; Ga., $10,000; New Mex., $9,812; Canada, $75,062. Stock, par value, $25 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, 318.23%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000; net, $15,000.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company has backing of strong interests through its affiliation with the Home Group. It has the same official and field administration as the Home, of New York, under which it has expanded with a generally progressive and successful career. Its financial progress has been especially marked by its ample and steadily increasing surplus and growing premium income. It has also regularly paid substantial dividends and is in excellent repute for its treatment of loss claimants. Recent underwriting and investment results: 1923, underwriting profit, $269,128, investment profit, $234,007; 1922, underwriting loss, $1,956; investment profit, $574,293; 1921, underwriting loss, $36,246, investment profit, $703,754. 1920, underwriting loss, $53,857, investment profit, $15,164; 1919, underwriting profit, $305,190; investment profit, $119,383. The directorate, in 1923, held $21,300, par value, of the $1,000,000 capital stock. Company has high class investments which are remunerative.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: National Board of Fire Underwriters, Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, National Automobile Underwriters Conference and sectional conferences.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, inland and ocean marine, motor vehicle, sprinkler leakage, explosion, earthquake, flood, lightning, rain, rent, registered mail, tourists' baggage, tornado, hail, riot and civil commotion, profits, use and occupancy, and war risk.

HISTORICAL DATA

Company organized, 1859, in Georgia, with $300,000 authorized capital. During 1915 it decreased capital from $300,000 to $200,000 thus transferring $100,000 to surplus. Stock, par value, $100 a share; book value, December 31, 1923, $169.45. Latest sale 85%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $30,000; net, $10,000. Conflagration losses: Baltimore, 1904, $167,000; Augusta, Ga., $33,237; Paris, Tex., $12,986; Atlanta, Ga., 1917

$30,824. Deposits with States: La., $9,850; Va., $9,884; N. C., $10,000; S. C., $9,875; N. Y., $9,860; Ill., $9,756.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Experienced underwriters manage the company's operations which, over a long period, were generally satisfactory, but due to high loss and expense ratios, applying particularly to business in certain sections, and to underwriting losses in 1920 and 1921, its business of late years has not been in general so profitable. In 1922 and 1923 the company's operations showed marked gains. Recent underwriting and investment results: 1923, underwriting loss, $37,778, investment profit, $34,713; 1922, underwriting loss, $16,560; investment profit, $27,714; 1921, underwriting loss, $83,625; investment profit, $71,767; 1920, underwriting loss, $30,961; investment profit, $28,554; 1919, underwriting profit, $19,573; investment profit, $43,435. Its directors, mostly prominent local business men, in 1923, owned $27,187 par value of the $200,000 capital stock. Actual control of company is held among a small group. Present volume of business is conservative and carefully selected. Company has some good grade investments and its loss paying reputation is excellent.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: National Board of Fire Underwriters, Western Union.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, lightning, profits, riot and civil commotion, sprinkler leakage, tornado, use and occupancy.

HISTORICAL DATA

Company organized and began business, 1903, in North Carolina under the name Southern Underwriters. Company's present title was adopted 1921. Policies issued under the former name were, prior to 1908, guaranteed by the Southern Stock Fire, Southern Life & Trust, Underwriters of Greensboro, and the Home of Greensboro. In 1909, the Southern Underwriters discontinued the above arrangement and absorbed the Home of Greensboro, starting independent operations with a capital of $150,000, which was increased, 1909, to $200,000 and $4,900 realized as premium on new stock. The George Washington, the Greensboro Fire, and the Pilot Fire jointly guarantee the policies of the McAlister Underwriters. Stock, par value, is $100 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, $141.15; latest sale, 105%. Other companies under the same control: The Greensboro, and the Pilot, both of Greensboro, N. C., which, with the George Washington, are known as the McAlister Group.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company is progressive and has almost steadily increased its volume of business at the same time paying reasonable dividends. Its directors, mostly prominent local business and professional men. It has a good reputation for loss payments, and is generally in excellent repute. HISTORICAL DATA

This company was incorporated, March 26, 1853, in Pennsylvania. In 1867, it had $200,000 capital stock which was subsequently increased to $300,000 and in 1906, to $500,000, with $400,000 contributed to surplus, the $600,000 having been collected by issue of new stock to the amount of $200,000, par value $100 at $300 per share. This was necessitated by the company's heavy losses in the San Francisco conflagration. Capital increased, 1921, to $1,000,000, surplus paid in at this time being $275,000. Other companies under same control: Firemen's of Newark, N. J., Mechanics of Philadelphia and National-Ben Franklin of Pittsburgh, Pa., which with the Girard F. & M., are known as the Firemen's Group. Company issues and guarantees policies under the name Girard Underwriters and joins with Firemen's of Newark, Mechanics of Philadelphia, National-Ben Franklin of Pittsburgh in issuing Keystone Underwriters policies. Conflagration losses: Chicago, 1871, $20,000; Boston, 1872, $62,000; San Francisco, 1906, $753,687; Salem, 1914, $23,617. Majority of stock owned by New Jersey Investment Company. Special deposits are as follows: Ga., $9,870; Va., $30,265; N. C., $10,039; Canada, $55,912; N. M., $4,935. Stock, par value, $100 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, $207.52. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $400,000; net, $50,500. December 31, 1922, directors owned $8,900 of capital stock.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: In addition to an estimable career of long service and an excellent reputation for conservative business conduct and prompt loss paying ability, this company has the additional strength of being under the same capable management as the large and well known Firemen's of Newark, N. J. The Girard writes a moderate volume of business, has normal operating expenses and a low loss ratio. It has a substantial surplus, shows large premium income advances, and in recent years has paid liberal dividends with regularity. The company was examined in 1923 jointly by the Pennsylvania and New Jersey Insurance Departments. Recent underwriting and investment results: 1923, underwriting loss, $73,434, investment profit, $118,458; 1922, underwriting loss, $70,800; investment profit, $409,203; 1921, underwriting profit, $3,503; investment profit, $473,535; 1920, underwriting loss, $70,478; investment loss, $167,728; 1919, underwriting loss, $62,910; investment profit, $41,867.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was formed February 9, 1899, by consolidation of the Globe Fire, organized March, 1863, and the Rutgers Fire' organized October, 1853. Their combined capitals, $200,000 each' gave the new company an initial paid-in capital of $400,000. Its capital was increased during 1916 to $700,000 by $200,000 stock dividends and by $100,000 of new stock bought by stockholders at par value, $100 a share, and in 1922 its capital was increased to $3,500,000 by $2,800,000 stock dividend. E. C. Jameson, formerly president of both companies became president of Globe & Rutgers. He is also president of the Hamilton Fire, New York, which company together with the Globe and Rutgers forms a combination known as the Globe & Rutgers Group. The policies issued under the name Globe Underwriters Agency are guaranteed by this company. The Globe & Rutgers has reinsured the following: 1919, the Seneca Fire of Buffalo, N. Y.; 1922, the fire and tornado business of the Peninsular Fire of Grand Rapids. Conflagration losses: Baltimore, 1904, $90,000, net; San Francisco, 1906, $875,561, net. Deposits with States, etc.: Va., $74,250; N. C., $20,600; Ga., $9,940; Can., $932,330. Stock, par value, is $100 per share, book value, December 31, 1923, $548.32. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $350,000; net, $150,000.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company has attained high rank among the leading American Fire Companies through skillful and economical management. It has been successful in realizing a good profit on its operations while at the same time building up large surplus. Its large premium income shows a steadily advancing trend on a large and well selected business volume. The very liberal dividends paid to stockholders are another evidence of the company's notable progress. Its investments, being high class, are quite remunerative and its capable and enterprising management has produced an exemplary underwriting record which in recent years, with investment results also are as follows: 1923, underwriting profit, $526,309, investment profit, $1,606,591; 1922, underwriting profit, $423,161; investment profit, $3,574,539; 1921, underwriting profit, $650,332; investment profit, $1,548,045; 1920, underwriting profit, $448,833, investment profit, $1,186,459; 1919, underwriting profit, $940,601; investment profit, $801,430. E. C. Jameson, founder and president, is the largest individual stockholder, the balance of stock being in the hands of comparatively few holders, mostly directors of the company, nationally known capitalists, and business men and executives in public life who, in 1923, owned $2,112,200, par value, of $3,500,000 capital stock. Company has an excellent loss paying record.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized and began business, 1872, in New York, as the German American Insurance Company, with $1,000,000 authorized capital, which was soon thereafter fully paid in. Its capital was increased in 1903 to $1,500,000 and $913,680 new surplus was paid in; in 1911, to $2,000,000, by mergence of the Rochester German Insurance Company, of Rochester, N. Y.; in 1918, to $5,000,000, and $1,500,000 new surplus paid in, by stock, par value, $100, sold at $150 per share; in 1920, to $10,000,000, and in 1922, to $12,500,000, by stock dividend. Other companies under same control: American Alliance, New York, Massachusetts F. & M., Boston, North Carolina Home, Raleigh, American National, Columbus, Ohio, Mt. Royal Assur. Co., Montreal, Canada, which, with the Great American, form a very strong and well known aggregation called the Great American Group. The American Alliance is also under the same executive management as the Great American, but the other two companies of the Group are operated separately. Company adopted the name Great American in 1917. It guarantees policies issued under the name Rochester Underwriters, and jointly with the American Alliance guarantees policies under title American Alliance Insurance Association. The company was examined by the New York Insurance Department in 1923. Conflagration losses: Baltimore, 1904, $640,735; San Francisco, 1906, $2,297,830. Deposits in States, etc.: N. Y., $1,005,000; Va., $114,400; N. C., $29,400; Ga., $14,700; N. M., $14,700; Canada, $694,176; Cuba, $98,000; Porto Rico, $9,300. Stock, par value, $100 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, $199.72; latest quotation, bid, 259%, asked, 262%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $1,420,000; net, $464,550.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company ranks among the largest of the leaders in the business. Its capable management, following a conservative policy of underwriting, has been generally successful in its operations with a moderate volume of business. It has paid substantial dividends and has steadily increased its surplus. Recent underwriting and investment results: 1923, underwriting loss, $822,863, investment profit, $2,271,147; 1922, underwriting profit, $204,150, investment profit, $4,699,917; 1921, underwriting loss, $1,189,801, investment profit, $4,988,906; 1920, underwriting loss, $138,190, investment profit, $641,720; 1919, underwriting loss, $1,734,688, investment loss, $93,821. The company is well backed and has a directorate of prominent business men and financiers who owned, 1923, $562,800, par value, of the company's $12,500,000 capital stock. Its high grade investments are very profitable, and it has an excellent loss-paying record. Its marine underwriting is done by Wm. H. McGee & Co., general agents, New York. The company has $1,000,000 special reserve fund deposited with the New York Insurance Department.

HISTORICAL DATA

Company organized, 1917, in Illinois by a number of prominent Polish people of Chicago and vicinity. It was incorporated August, 1917, received its license November 5, 1917 and began business March 1, 1918, with $100,000 capital paid in and an initial surplus of $29,567. Organized as Polonia Fire, present name adopted just prior to beginning business in 1918. Promotional expenses were not immoderate. Capital of the Great Lakes was increased, January 20, 1919, to $200,000 and $76,757 was contributed to surplus; and on December 18, 1919 capital was again increased to $400,000 by cash payments, surplus having been increased to $316,336. Stock, par value, $10 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, 166.69%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $30,000; net, $20,000.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Operations of this company are conducted under the direction of Harold W. Letton, who manages the United States business of the Netherlands Insurance Company of The Hague. Treaty reinsurance business was the company's chief source of income prior to January 1, 1921, when this treaty reinsurance was reinsured and discontinued, which, tending to reduce the net premium income, left a small volume of business in 1921. Its present operations are limited to an agency business. Underwriting and investment results since organization: 1923, underwriting loss, $128,456, investment gain, $34,550; 1922, underwriting loss, $89,325; investment profit, $81,275; 1921, underwriting loss, $26,743; investment profit, $49,907; 1920, underwriting loss, $136,366; investment profit, $45,001; 1919, underwriting loss, $19,754; investment profit, $24,455. The directorate, mostly prominent Polish business men of the middle west, 1923, owned $32,500, par value, of the $400,000 capital stock. Company has high grade investments and is in good repute respecting treatment of loss claims.

BOARD MEMBERSHIP: National Board of Fire Underwriters, Western Insurance Bureau, Rocky Mt. Underwriters Association.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, sprinkler leakage, tornado, reinsurance, lightning, use and occupancy.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized, January 19, 1920, in Ill., by persons identified with the Marquette National Fire; began business in January, 1921, with an authorized capital of $400,000, which has been full paid up, and $450,000 contributed to surplus. Stock, par value, $20, was sold at $50 per share, and promotional expense limited to 15% thereof. In 1923 capital stock was increased from $400,000 to $500,000 by sale of new stock at 225% thus adding $125,000 to surplus. Organization of the company was mainly conducted by F. J. Matre & Co., who are closely connected with the Marquette National. The Great Western is under the same general management as the Marquette National. These two, with the Firemen & Mechanics, Indianapolis and the Pittsburgh Fire, Pittsburgh, compose an aggregation known as the Marquette National Group. In 1924, the Great Western Underwriters reinsured the business of the Liberty Fire of St. Louis. The Great Western and the Marquette National jointly guarantee policies issued under the name Great Western Underwriters. Stock, par value, is $20 a share; book value, December 31, 1923, 162.56%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $7,500; net, $7,500.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company shows a progressive disposition, being under the capable administration of underwriters who are experienced, having for some time successfully directed the operations of the Marquette National, a large part of whose reinsurance is available to the Great Western by first cession. Its first year of business was small in volume, with considerably above average loss and expense ratios. In 1921, it charged off stock notes due subject to call, thereby reducing its surplus $138,134. Its investments are high-grade, and have given excellent returns. Underwriting and investment results since organization: 1923, underwriting loss, $112,803, investment loss, $29,367; 1922, underwriting loss, $140,592, investment profit, $39,195; 1921, underwriting loss, $31,251, investment profit, $44,786.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire direct and fire reinsurance and tornado.

HISTORICAL DATA

Company organized, 1897, in N. C., under the charter name of Underwriters of Goldsboro, with initial paid-in capital of $37,500. By charter amendment, name was soon changed to Underwriters of Greensboro, and again in 1921, to its present title. Capital was increased, 1909, to $100,000 by transfer of $37,500 from surplus and $25,000 paid in by stockholders. Companies under same control: George Washington, and the Pilot, both of Greensboro, which with the Greensboro Fire, compose the McAllister group. These three companies jointly guarantee the policies of the McAllister Underwriters. Stock, par value, is $100 a share; book value, December 31, 1923, $227.74; latest sale, $125%.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company backing and its affiliation with the McAllister group gives its policies added strength. It has built up a conservative volume of business, and through capable management has been generally successful. Underwriting and investment results in the last five years have been: 1923, underwriting loss, $15,063, investment profits, $23,907; 1922, underwriting loss, $9,515, investment profit, $17,620; 1921, underwriting loss, $34,197, investment profit, $38,584; 1920, underwriting loss, $5,956, investment profit, $27,921; 1919, underwriting profit, $14,909, investment profit, $12,672. Its directorate, composed of prominent local business and insurance men, in 1923, owned $15,300 par value, of the $100,000 capital stock. The company has good investments, has paid dividends regularly, and has an estimable loss-paying record.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, tornado and windstorm, use and occupancy.

HISTORICAL DATA

The company organized, 1922, in Maryland, with home office located in Norfolk, Va. Substantial financial and business interests of Norfolk and vicinity were the principal organizers. It began business May 31, 1922, with a capital of $200,000 and a surplus of $177,711. In 1922, stockholders contributed cash capital, $80,000, cash surplus, $79,000; 1923 they contributed cash capital, $20,000, cash surplus, $20,000. Stock, par value, $100; book value, December, 31, 1923, $141.06; latest sale, 200%.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Between the beginning of business, May 31, 1922, and the end of the year, this company wrote gross premiums of $165,000, which it retained $127,000. In the same period its losses incurred amounted to $13,616, its loss payments having been only $8,470. Underwriting and investment results in recent years: 1923, underwriting loss, $137,600, investment profit, $24,302; 1922, underwriting loss, $32,581, investment profit, $11,420. The underwriting loss in 1922 and 1923 was due largely to necessary up-building of required reserves. In methods of operation, it functions up to the requirements of the States of Maryland and Virginia. The former's Chief Examiner stated in an official report on the condition of the company dated November 26, 1923; "Its financial condition is sound and its affairs are efficiently managed. Its business is steadily increasing and is being conservatively underwritten. Its policyholders have been fairly dealt with and claims have been promptly paid." The directorate is composed of prominent local business men and bankers.

BOARD MEMBERSHIP: National Board of Fire Underwriters.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Automobile, farm fire, lightning reinsurance, tornado sprinkler leakage, riot and civil commotion, use and occupancy.

Other companies under same control: Citizens, St. Louis; Hartford A. & I.; Hartford Live Stock; Northwestern F. & M. of Minneapolis; Twin City of Minneapolis, Henry Clay of Lexington, Ky, Federal of Jersey City, Sterling of Indianapolis and Stonewall of Mobile, Ala. These companies, with the Hartford Fire, form the Hartford Group. In 1919 this company reinsured the Madison Insurance Company, of Madison, Ind., and in September, 1922, the Rocky Mountain Fire of Great Falls, Montana. In 1922, it also purchased control of the London Mutaul Fire of Toronto. The New York Underwriters Agency acts as a special department of the Hartford Issuing its policies through the New York Underwriters separate agency system in all parts of the United States and Canada. Chubb & Son, New York, operate as the Marine Department of the Hartford Fire.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The Hartford Fire ranks among the leaders in the business both as to size and success in its operations, being under the most capable administration; and in the general high esteem of property owners and agents it has made an exemplary record of progress. Recent underwritings and investment results: 1923, underwriting loss, $2,676,334, investment profit, $3,058,063; 1922, underwriting loss, $90,810, investment profit, $3,436,170; 1921, underwriting loss, $942,346; investment profit, $2,243,368; 1920, underwriting loss, $1,185,340; investment profit, $1,149,492; 1919, underwriting profit, $4,554,037, investment profit, $816,449. The directorate, composed mostly of prominent Connecticut business men and financiers, in 1923 owned $264,100, par value, of the $8,000,000 capital stock. The company's underwriting policy is conservative. Its premium income has shown large advances and its surplus has steadily increased while the company has at the same time paid liberal dividends to stockholders for many years. Its investments are high grade and its loss paying reputation excellent. Its volume of business is large. It has in all respects an excellent reputation.

HISTORICAL DATA

Company incorporated in 1864, in Cal., as the Home Mutual, the name being changed to Home Fire & Marine, in 1900. On stock basis its actual capital was $300,000 paid up. Business was discontinued following the San Francisco conflagration in 1906, at which time the company's stock was entirely owned by the Firemans Fund. It was revived in 1918, with capital paid up of $500,000 and surplus $1,000,000, stock par value, $10 being subscribed at $30 per share. There were no promotional expenses in 1921. Capital increased to $1,000,000 by $500,000 of new stock at 250%, January, 1922. New shares of stock were sold at $25 each, thus supplying $750,000 surplus funds which were paid early in 1922. HISTORICAL DATA

This company began business in 1919, having been licensed in December, 1918. It is allied with the Svea F. & L. Insurance Company of Sweden, which owns a controlling interest in the Hudson. The latter started with a paid up capital of $500,000 and an initial surplus of $1,000,000. Par value of shares, $50; book value, December 31, 1923, 226.29 %.

Deposits with States: Ga., $9,800; N. M., $10,000; N. C., $9,800; Va., $29,400.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The Hudson is under the same management as the United States branches of the Svea and the Christiania General, which have established good reputations in this country. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000; net, $35,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned $20,150 of stocks.

Underwriting and investment results in the last five years: 1919, underwriting loss, $207,411, investment gain, $56,433; 1920, underwriting loss, $306,874, investment gain, $79,596; 1921, underwriting loss, $77,122, investment gain, $172,771; 1922, underwriting loss, $140,341, investment profit, $160,495; 1923, underwriting loss, $164,063, investment profit, $75,611.

The company started with a considerable volume of business in 1919, which was naturally reflected in a decrease in the surplus. The following year its premiums exceeded $1,000,000 and its surplus declined about $227,000; in 1921 with about $800,000 of net premium income, the surplus showed a gain of $95,000.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized October 13, 1917, in Missouri. C. W. Revelle, former Insurance Commissioner of Missouri, was actively identified with the organization. It began business immediately, initial capital being $200,000 and surplus, $100,000. There was no promotional expense. Even the fee and expenses incidental to organization were paid without encroaching upon the surplus. Capital was increased, 1918, to $250,000. Stockholders, in 1921, made two contributions to surplus, $50,000 in March, and later in the year, $100.000; and again in 1922 they paid in $191,000 to surplus. The Missouri Insurance Department examined the company as of April 30, 1920. Its report, dated May 10, 1920, contained no derogatory statements. July 27, 1922, the company was purchased and its business taken over by the interests who own the Commonwealth Insurance Agency. Stock, par value, $100 a share; book value, December 31, 1923, $163.15; latest sale, 150%.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Soon after beginning business, the company's aggressive operations resulted in notable progress. Within two years it was writing a substantial volume which continued to increase through 1919 and 1920. Those years proved to be generally poor in automobile experience, and as these were the only lines written by the Indemnity it had to bear severe losses which were only in part offset by its low expenses. Recent underwriting and investment results: 1923, underwriting loss, $48,346; investment profit, $50,634; 1922, underwriting loss, $334,648; investment profit, $22,458; 1921, underwriting loss, $182,759; investment profit, $29,629; 1920, underwriting loss, $50,808; investment profit, $50,923. The company reduced its writings in 1921 and 1922, but somewhat increased them in 1923.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Automobile fire, collision and property damage, theft and liability.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company is the oldest American joint stock insurance corporation. It was organized, 1792, in Pa. Many incidents and many prominent persons important in the foundation history of the United States are recorded in the company's annals as having been to some extent identified with its early career and development. The complete original title of The President and Directors of the Insurance Company of North America was curtailed to its present form in 1910. Original authorized capital of $600,000 was later reduced. Paid in capital of $300,000, in 1850, was increased by stock dividend in that year to $500,000 and further increased as follows: 1874, to $1,000,000; 1876, to $2,000,000; 1882, to $3,000,000, with special surplus paid in $1,000,000; 1910, to $4,000,000, with $500,000 additional paid in to surplus; 1920, to $5,000,000, with $1,000,000 to surplus. Since 1920, capital has remained at $5,000,000. The company has jointly guaranteed with the Fire Association of Philadelphia, the policies of the Philadelphia Underwriters. In 1923, it purchased the Fire Associations interest therein, with the intention to organize the Philadelphia Fire & Marine Insurance Company to succeed to the business of the Philadelphia Underwriters. The company also owns the Securities Company of North America, which in turn owns the National Security Fire Insurance Company & Indemnity Insurance Company of North America. In the South the company guarantees policies issued under the name Oglethorpe Underwriters, Conflagration losses: Chicago, 1871, about $650,000; Boston, 1872, about $900,000; Baltimore, 1904, $507,292; San Francisco, 1906, $3,315,000. HISTORICAL DATA

This company has with one exception the oldest charter of any stock fire insurance company in the United States (the first charter being only 4 days older), having been chartered with perpetual rights April 18, 1794, in Pennsylvania. In 1911, the Union, of Philadelphia, organized 1803, the Spring Garden, of Philadelphia, organized, 1835, and the Insurance Company of the State of Pennsylvania were consolidated under the charter and title of the last named institution and in 1913, the American Fire, of Philadelphia, was also merged with it. This company's consolidation with the first two companies mentioned increased its paid-in capital to $800,000 and in 1913, the mergence of the American Fire increased this capital to $1,000,000, at which it has since remained. This company guarantees the policies of the Insurance Underwriters, and the American Underwriters Agency issued from the home office. Conflagration losses: Baltimore, 1904, $154,690; San Francisco, 1906, $332,208; Salem, Mass., 1914, $73,660. Deposits with States, etc.: Ga., $9,400; Va., $57,760; N. C., $24,500; and Canada, $172,501. Stock, par value, $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $210.17; latest sale, 170%.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: It is capably managed by an executive staff of experience and progressive disposition, headed by Gustavus Remak, Jr., president. The company does a substantial volume of business carefully observing the conflagration hazard. Premium income decreased slightly in 1921 and again in 1922, but increased considerably in 1923. Results from underwriting and investment operations in the last five years have been: 1923, underwriting loss, $90,286, investment profit, $183,656; 1922, underwriting profit, $25,722, investment profit, $460,426; 1921, underwriting loss, $112,990, investment profit, $257,048; 1920, underwriting loss, $185,225, investment profit, $152,239; 1919, underwriting profit, $221,485, investment profit, $66,162. Operating costs have been about average. Loss ratio in general has been slightly above normal. The company's investments are high grade and remunerative. Dividends have been paid to stockholders regularly in late years. The company has an estimable loss paying reputation.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized, March 6, 1909, in New York, and began business July 1, of that year, confining its transactions to fire reinsurance exclusively. Original capital was $200,000, paid in with $50,000 surplus. Up to 1914, stockholders voluntarily contributed a total of $535,000 to surplus. Prior to October, 1918, when the Alien Property Custodian took over this company it was largely owned and controlled by the Hamburg Assurance Company, Hamburg, Germany. The International was purchased from the A. P. C. by interests identified with Crum & Forster, of New York, later in 1918. On October 20, 1919, capital was increased to $1,000,000 by new subscriptions of $600,000, and $200,000 stock dividends declared. Sumner Ballard, president, of the International heads the Sumner Ballard Group of Fire reinsurance companies as follows: International, N. Y.; Metropolitan National, Havana; New India, Bombay; Osaka M. & F., Osaka; and the Scandinavia, Copenhagen. Stock, par value, $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $265.63.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company's management, headed by Sumner Ballard, is thoroughly experienced and in excellent repute for its successful administration of reinsurance business for the several companies of the Ballard group. It operates efficiently and with a breadth of service that has gained in popularity among the patrons of its excellent facilities for coverage. Underwriting and investment results for the past five years: 1923, underwriting profit, $117,102, investment profit, $303,225; 1922, underwriting loss, $53,106, investment profit, $518,733; 1921, underwriting loss, $215,477, investment profit, $445,211; 1920, underwriting loss, $447,060, investment profit, $275,381; 1919, underwriting profit, $743,860, investment profit, $81,609. The company has high grade and remunerative investments. Expense ratio is moderate; loss ratio above average. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $50,000; net, $40,000. It has paid some liberal dividends. December 31, 1923, directors owned $6,500 of stock.

BOARD MEMBERSHIP: National Board of Fire Underwriters.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, motor vehicle, tornado, sprinkler, riot, civil commotion and explosion and earthquake reinsurance.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was incorporated April 26, 1918, as a casualty company under the name "National Bonding and Insurance Company," and was examined and licensed by the Insurance Department of Ia. on May 31, 1920. At a special meeting held July 29, 1920, before any business had been transacted, the stockholders voted to amend the charter, changing the company to a fire and marine reinsurance company. The company began accepting reinsurance in November, 1920.

The articles authorized a capital of $1,000 000, which was fully subscribed. The stock was sold at $200 per share, the par value being $100. The promotion expense was about 22%. December 31, 1920, the fully paid capital was $722,500, and the surplus $248,178. In January, 1921, the stockholders voted to reduce the authorized capital to $500 000 in order to provide a more ample surplus and thus increase the writing capacity of the company. This capital is divided into 5,000 shares of $100 each and is fully paid. In addition to the net cash surplus of $433,656, on December 31, 1923, the company had a non-admitted asset of bills receivable amounting to $281,673 which is understood to represent subscriptions to the surplus account. Surplus would be $468,835 if the unearned premiums were computed on the 15-day pro rata basis which is more accurate than the statutory method used. The company was examined by the Iowa State Insurance Department in 1923. Stock, par value, $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $187.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Very substantial banking and business interests stand behind this company and its management shows capability and progressiveness of disposition. The underwriting results of its early career are satisfactory and due to a commendable conservatism in the upbuilding of the company's reserves and financial strength. In less than three years of business, an excellent premium income has developed. It made notable progress in 1922. The assets of this company have increased more than a million dollars since it began business. During the current year it made large increases in premium income, unearned premium reserve and in assets. The ratio of expenses to earned premiums was reduced about 4%. Recent underwriting and investments results: 1923, underwriting loss, $209,431, investment profit, $113,522; 1922, underwriting loss, $119,081, investment profit, $94,216; 1921, underwriting loss, $166,329, investment profit, $97,589; 1920, investment profit, $17,196. The company has well secured investments, mostly mortgage loans and United States Bonds, which return a satisfactory yield. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $50,000; net, $50,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned $41,775 of stock.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, motor vehicle, explosion, tornado, hail, sprinkler leakage, riot and civil commotion, lightning, use and occupancy, and explosion reinsurance.

LOUISIANA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, Baton Rouge, La.

President, T. Jones Cross; Secretary, R. N. Ross. Organized, 1891.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company began business in 1891, with $250,000 authorized capital and confined its writings to La. Although transacting but a small volume of business, the company had an excellent business record and continued to develop its lines until 1907 when it made a reinsurance treaty with The Great American Insurance Company of New York, by which all of its liabilities were eliminated and it retained its identity, continuing business as theretofore but without any liability for unearned premiums. Its latest available statement, December 31, 1922, showed assets of $85,554, with a net surplus of $4,810 over its capital of $80,700.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The management of The Louisiana Fire Insurance Company has been consistently in the hands of one group. Although but a very small volume of business is transacted, the risks are of the preferred class and the company has regularly paid dividends.

CLASS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: The company writes fire insurance only.

TERRITORY COVERED: Operates in La. only.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company does business under a perpetual charter, having been organized in 1831 with an authorized capital of $100,000. Of the authorized capital, 20% was paid in at the commencement of business, the balance being represented by stockholders' notes which were later paid. The special charter of the company was purchased in 1919 by H. H. Woodsmall and affiliated interests and the company was then reorganized and loan certificates were given for the par value of the stock by its subscribers. In July, 1922, the existing management purchased control. Under its special charter, the Madison Insurance Company is not compelled to come under the State insurance department, but the company has made a practice of submitting its financial statements as a matter of courtesy, though we were advised in July, 1924, that no statement for 1923 had then been filed. Par value of shares $50; book value, December 31, 1922, 157.00%.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The management of this company was the same as that of the Meridian Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Indianapolis, L. S. MacEnaney, the president, being a man of more than thirty year's experience in the fire insurance business.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Automobile, fire, tornado and windstorm and plate glass.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized, October 20, 1920, in Pa., by parties connected with the Manufacturers Casualty Company, of Philadelphia, for the purpose of giving complete coverage in motor vehicle insurance. It began business January 1, 1921, with $100,000 paid in capital and $50,000 surplus, the latter acquired as premium on stock sold at $15 a share, par value, $10. Stockholders paid in $23,765 to surplus in 1921. December 31, 1922, paid in capital amounted to $153,210, with surplus of $24,705 having been acquired during that year. Capital increased to $158,990 and $4,335 surplus paid in in 1923. Stock, par value, $10; book value, December 31, 1923, 175.81%; latest sale, 200%.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company is closely affiliated with the Manufacturers Casualty of Philadelphia having the same executive staff and an interlocking directorate. It is strong to a satisfactory degree in its own assets and reserves and has added strength through its affiliation. Premium volume was small in its initial year of operation and fell off slightly in 1922, but again increased in1923. Underwriting and investment activities have been successful, returning the following results: 1921, underwriting profit, $301, investment profit, $19,491; 1922, underwriting profit, $5,136, investment profit, $23,294; 1923, underwriting profit, $15,112, investment profit, $4,864. Expense ratio has been moderate and loss ratio about average.

HISTORICAL DATA

With a capital of $1,000,000 authorized, the company was incorporated under the laws of Ill. in 1912 and sold shares at $50 per share, par value, $25. The reduction of the par value of shares from $25 to $10 came in 1914 together with a $700,000 reduction in capital. The company began business in 1915, after being licensed by the Illinois State Department in January of that year and the capital at the inception of writings was $300,000 while the surplus stood at $35,349. In 1921, the Western Alliance Insurance Company was merged with the Marquette National and the capital rose to $475,000, the Western Alliance having had $350,000 capital and $230,334 surplus when the consolidation was arranged. In 1923 the capital was increased to $600,000. The increase in surplus by sale of stock amounted to $281,600. The interests in control of the Marquette National are now also behind the control of the Pittsburgh Fire of Pittsburgh. Par value of shares, $10; book value, December 31, 1923, 149.70%. The company was examined by the Illinois Insurance Department in 1923.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The progress of the Marquette National since it was licensed has been such as to testify to the experienced capabilities of A. J. Davis, who is in charge of underwriting and of Anthony Matre, who is president and founder, and Napoleon Picard, who is secretary and treasurer and is a large factor in the direction of the company's destiny Mr. Picard is also secretary and treasurer of the Great Western Fire, Chicago, and is manager of the Insurance Exchange Building, Chicago. During 1921, the company, in common with many others, suffered slightly from a high loss and expense ratio but previous to that, and particularly from 1917 to 1920, the gains were rapid and substantial. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000; net, $25,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned $92,500 of stock. The record of underwriting and investment gains and losses is as follows: 1923, underwriting loss' $112,933, investment profit, $33,129; 1922, underwriting loss, $96,251; investment profit, $67,394; 1921, underwriting loss, $189,365; investment profit, $48,588; 1920, underwriting loss, $90,329; investment profit, $48,715; 1919, underwriting loss, $60,106, investment profit, $50,100.

HISTORICAL DATA

The company was incorporated, with an authorized capital of $500,000, in Mass. on March 3, 1910, and commenced business three months later having by that time gathered $500,000 surplus by selling stock with a par value of $100 at a premium of 100%. The company continued building its underwriting foundation under its own control until 1920 when a meeting of the stockholders on December 13, decided to accept an offer to purchase the stock of the company. The offer was made by the directorate affiliated with the Great American Insurance Company, New York, and after some dissension the proposition was carried and the control passed to the latter organization's backers. The Eclectic Securities Corporation now owns 4,965 shares of the stock. Par value of shares, $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $211.06. Value of special deposits: Ga., $10,200; N. C., $12,740; Va., $12,740. The company was examined by the Massachusetts Insurance Department in 1923.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The company has had a regular succession of preponderant gains in profits derived from investments which more than overbalanced the underwriting loss which appeared in some years. Its management, which has been very successful throughout, is the executive control which is also in command of the American Alliance Insurance and the Great American Insurance companies of New York. The feature which has characterized the company since its inception is prompt payment of losses and this has resulted in an excellent reputation with the insuring public. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000; net, $50,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned $1,500 of stock. The company's underwriting and investment record for recent years has been: 1923, underwriting profit, $12,223, investment profit, $70,552; 1922, underwriting loss, $7,488, investment profit, $139,061; 1921, underwriting loss, $4,259, investment profit, $128,839; 1919, underwriting loss, $20,489, investment profit, $70,056.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was incorporated with $200,000 authorized capital in February, 1910, under the laws of New York State. Operations were began in March, 1910, when the capital had all been paid in, in addition to a surplus of $300,000. The capital stock was increased by $200,000 to $400,000 on February 1, 1916 The preferred stock of the company was offered to the stockholders on a pro-rata basis at $105 per share, being 7% accumulative. By a stock dividend in 1921 the capital was increased to $700,000 by a stock dividend of $300,000. In 1923 capital increased to $1,000,000 by stock dividend of $270,000 ($150,000 preferred, $120,000 common) and cash paid in on common, $30,000. The company was examined by the New York Insurance Department in 1923. The vice-president of the Continental Insurance Company of New York, E. L. Ballard, became President of the Company at its inception and continued so until 1920, when he assumed the post of Chairman of the Board. At the present time, $250,000 of the companie's stock is preferred, and $750,000 is common. The company has on deposit in Canada, $170,000. Par value of shares, common, $25, preferred, $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $269.86. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000; net, $50,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned $550,225 of stock.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The outstanding feature of this company's early progress is the fact that for the first nine years of its existence its annual statement showed an underwriting profit. In 1921, however, its loss ratio was high but there was a large gain in investments, thus bringing an increment to surplus after the payment of dividends. The company's volume of business written has been large in comparison to its operational resources, and its management expenses have been notably low. Its gain in investments was steady until 1918 when a moderate loss ratio and increased business facilities brought about a favorable status and in 1919, this was reflected by an increase of nearly 400% in investment profit. Its underwriting and investment record for the past five years is as follows: 1923, underwriting profit, $250,052, investment profit, $432,053; 1922. underwriting loss, $185,036, investment profit, $715,182; 1921, underwriting loss, $36,373, investment profit, $108,031; 1920, underwriting loss, $75,635, investment loss, $244,074; 1919, underwriting profit, $89,767, investment profit, $200,777.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: National Board of Fire Underwriters, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Automobile, war risk, earthquake, explosion, fire, hail, lightning, ocean and inland marine, profits, reinsurance, rent, riot and civil commotion, sprinkler leakage, tornado and windstorm, use and occupancy

HISTORICAL DATA

With an authorized capital of $100,000, paid in, this company was organized on September 6, 1917, under the laws of Ind. Surplus had $20,000 added to it by the sale of stock, par value, $50 per share at $62.50 per share. The stock was entirely voluntarily subscribed. Total surplus at organization was $25,000 and one-half the capital stock and one-half the surplus was in before organization was complete. On Steptember 1, 1918, the directors called in 25% of the unpaid, having previously on May 1, called in another 25%. Notes are held for the unpaid 50% of capital and surplus and the stockholders are bankers and business men of Ind. In the disbursements given at inception, $5,000 is for organization and incorporation expense, this being 5% of the capital stock. Par value of shares $50; book value, December 31, 1923 226.01%.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTE: The Merchants Fire is ably and conservatively managed, having been organized by experienced interests. Chiefly by R. B. Clark, who is secretary and manager of the Indiana Retail Merchants Fire, and who gained his familiarity with the business by his connection with that company since 1907. Managerial control is jointly shared with the Indiana Retail Merchants Association Mutual Fire, the same offices being made use of and all expenses being jointly apportioned. The company writes only preferred business and its prompt payment of claims has done much to enhance its reputation. Underwriting and investment profit and loss record: 1923, underwriting profit, $37,575; investment profit, $12,132; 1922, underwriting profit, $29,242 investment profit, $172; 1920, underwriting profit $22,719, investment profit, $7,962.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was given its impetus and was organized following the consolidation of the interests of the Metropolitan Fire and the Hibernia Fire Insurance Company, both of Chicago, on April 7, 1919. The name then became the Metropolitan-Hibernia Fire Insurance Company and the combined resources of the companies totalled $200,000 capital and $56,697 net surplus as of the year prior to the merger. The Metropolitan Fire, after beginning in 1903 with a capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $25,000, increased its capital 100% and then again reduced it to $100.000, so that at the time of the consolidation it stood at that figure. The year before the organization of the joint company, the Metropolitan Fire had a net surplus of $23,136 and a paid in capital of $100,000. The interest behind the organization of both the companies before their consolidation were the same, John Naghten and Company, carrying out the organization. The only difference that existed was that John Naghten and Company practically controlled the Metropolitan Fire, while acting as its general agent. The Metropolitan-Hibernia in 1920 increased its capital from $200,000 to $250,000 by sale of $50,000 of new stock at 200%, thus adding $50,000 to the surplus as well. Par value of shares, $10; book value, December 31, 1923, 129.12%.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Although neither the Hibernia Fire nor the Metropolitan Fire had shown an underwriting profit prior to the merger, the consolidation allowed the management, which was vested in John Naghten & Co., to broaden its activities and increase underwriting facilities. The result of this was shown during 1919 and 1920 by an underwriting profit for both those years. John Naghten & Co. now act as general agent under contract which permits freedom of action, and is mutually fair. The company has excellent backing and its management is both able and experienced. The record of underwriting and investment losses and gains for the past five years follows: 1923, underwriting loss, $17,437; investment profit, $16,149; 1922, underwriting loss, $2,974; investment profit, $45,337; 1921, underwriting loss, $8,089; investment profit, $35,685; 1920, underwriting profit, $5,261; investment profit, $11,219; 1919, underwriting profit, $10,800; investment profit, $5,850.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, lightning, profits, reinsurance, rent, tornado and windstorm, use and occupancy.

HISTORICAL DATA

Organized by interests affiliated with the Security Mutual Fire Insurance Company, this company was incorporated under the laws of Minnesota on July 15, 1909. In November, 1909, it began business with $100,000 of an authorized capital of $200,000 and having a surplus of $50,000. Later, the paid in capital of $100,000 was increased to $103,040, the par value of stock being $10 per share. During the first three years of its operation the management was practically the same as that of the Security Mutual Fire, but in August, 1912, a change of management was brought about. In 1918 a capital impairment was caused by heavy hail losses and by the forest fire conflagration in northern Minnesota during October of that year. The impairment of capital at the end of 1918 amounted to $25,797 and the company reinsured a substantial portion of its business in force and at the stockholders' annual meeting, February 4, 1919, an assessment of 32½% was levied on the stock, thus retiring $2,200 of its capital and making the existing capital stock $100,840 and giving a surplus of about $10,000. The company discontinued writing hail insurance. Par value of shares, $10; book value, December 31, 1923, 114.96%.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The company is directed by prominent business and financial men of Chatfield, the president being also president of The First National Bank of that city. It is under experienced management and its reputation regarding payment of losses is excellent. The volume of business written in comparison with net resources has been reduced considerably as against the company's earlier practices. The character of the properties upon which the company has outstanding mortgage loans is high, first mortgages being in force on approved lands in Minn., N. D. and S. D. The company's underwriting and investment gain and loss record during the past five years is as follows: 1923, underwriting loss, $1,880, investment profit, $6,545; 1922, underwriting loss, $6,698, investment profit, $6,910; 1921, underwriting loss, $9,801, investment profit, $6,469; 1920, underwriting profit, $585, investment profit, $6,489; 1919, underwriting loss, $8,229, investment profit, $6,191.

BOARD MEMBERSHIP: The company is affiliated with the General Inspection Bureau of Minneapolis.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Farm, fire, lightning, reinsurance, tornado and windstorm.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was incorporated April 27, 1921, and began business on May 1, 1921, with an authorized capital of $1,000,000, and a subscribed and paid in capital of $351,940 and $318,738 surplus paid in. The stock for the company was sold by contract with D. B. Reynolds, who was authorized to sell up to $1,000,000 of capital and $1,000,000 of surplus. The present paid in capital is $351,240. The contract with Mr. Reynolds has been terminated. The stock selling and organization expenses were rather high. Par value of stock, $10 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, 188.75%; latest sale, 200%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $181,000; net, $15,250. December 31, 1923, directors owned, $127,270 of stock.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company was organized following the withdrawal from Mississippi of most of the older fire insurance companies, involved in the Anti-Trust suit which completely upset fire insurance in Mississippi for a number of years. It is backed by substantial legal and banking interests of Mississippi. It guarantees policies issued under the name of Capital City Underwriters, Jackson, Miss. Underwriting and investment results for the past three years: 1923, underwriting profit, $25,766, investment profit, $49,316; 1922, underwriting profit, $68,597, investment profit, $42,746; 1921, underwriting loss, $114,971, investment profit, $11,678.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was incorporated and licensed under the laws of Neb. on April 12, 1919, and began business on October 23, 1919, with an authorized capital of $1,500,000 of which a little more than $1,000,000 was subscribed. Originally incorporated as the American National Fire Insurance Company, the name was changed to the present title owing to an objection made by the Royal, which owned the American National Fire Insurance Company of Ohio. The alteration in nomenclature took place on April 30, 1919. The organization was carried out by W. H. Ahmanson and the original officers still hold their respective positions. By December 1, 1919, the sale of stock had been completed and during 1920, $124,955 capital stock was paid up by cash. As of December 31, 1920, the total paid up had reached $878,255 which was increased during 1921 by an additional $35,330 in cash. In 1922, a further addition of $8,415 was made, and in 1923 it was increased to $935,000. First issue of stock was sold at $100 per share and part of the second issue went at $125 per share while the contract for promotion expense was in accordance with the statutes of Neb. which provide for 10% of the par value of stock. Par value of present shares, $50; book value, December 31, 1923, 141.53%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $135,000; net, $25,000.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The interests behind the management of the National American Fire are business men of the state of Neb. The management personnel itself is composed of experienced insurance executives, the president having had, at one time, the post of secretary of the State Insurance Company of Neb., later going to the Columbia Fire Underwriters in a managerial capacity which he resigned to head the National American Fire. All the other officials have had almost equally extensive experience. The company is writing a fair amount of business. The company's underwriting and investment gain and loss record for the years 1919, 1921, 1922 and 1923 is as follows: 1923, underwriting loss, $25,390, investment profit, $90,634; 1922, underwriting loss, $91,176, investment profit, $107,260; 1921, investment profit, $107,402; 1919, underwriting loss, $31,846, investment profit, $16,625.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: Western Union, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, Subscribers Actuarial Bureau, National Board of Fire Underwriters and the Farm Association.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, lightning, tornado, farm, reinsurance, rent, use and occupancy, automobile and hail on growing crops.

HISTORICAL DATA

Incorporated under the laws of Nebraska in May of 1916, the National Automobile Insurance Company was licensed during that year and began business January 3, 1917. The surplus at inception was $25,000 and of a subscribed capital of $250,000, $100,000 was paid in cash, the stock having a par value of $50 per share. The organization was completed and the company commenced writing without any promotional expense, this factor giving it a recognizable advantage at the start. In the beginning it was planned to write all lines of automobile insurance and this principle has never been deviated from. The company is licensed in Nebr. only. Par value of shares, $50; book value, December 31, 1923, 122.43%.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The management of the National Automobile Insurance Company is in experienced hands, being carried out by Secretary Rees Wilkinson who was previously in charge of the destinies of the Automobile Insurance Company of Lincoln. He joined the National Automobile Insurance Company when it took over the agencies and business of the aforenamed organization. The attention of the company has been directed to developing general lines of automobile business in the small towns and, operating only in Nebr., it has become very well known in its home state. The loss ratio on the average has been satisfactory and though the company writes only a moderate amount of insurance, it is careful in its selection of risks. Its underwriting and investment record for recent years is as follows: 1923, underwriting loss, $4,181, investment profit, $7,551; 1922, underwriting profit, $10,721, investment loss, $150; 1921, underwriting loss, $7,117, investment profit $5,333.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITEN: Company writes automobile insurance only, but accepts all classes of this.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was licensed to transact a general fire insurance business on May 7, 1918, having been incorporated under the laws of N. C., on March 2 of the same year. The par value of the stock, which was sold at $125 per share, was $100 and $50,000 of an authorized capital of $250,000 has been paid in together with $12,500 surplus. The purpose behind the organization of the North Carolina State Fire was, to a great extent, the necessity for providing reinsurance facilities for the Underwriters Fire Insurance Company, also of Rocky Mount. Par value of shares, $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $149.53.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The reins of management are in the hands of W. S. Wilkinson, who is secretary as well and is an experienced and able insurance executive. The directional control is the same as that of the Underwriters Fire Insurance Company, as Mr. Wilkinson is also secretary and manager of that organization. The company has been favored by a low loss ratio and there has never been any difficulty in the settlement of claims. Underwriting and investment gain and loss record for 1919, 1921 and 1923 is: 1923, underwriting loss, $3, investment profit, $2,299; 1921, underwriting profit, $3,388, investment profit, $2,741; 1919, underwriting profit, $1,737, investment profit, $3,079.

BOARD MEMBERSHIP: South-Eastern Underwriters Association.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: General fire insurance business.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized in 1899 in N. D. with an authorized capital of $100,000, of which $26,000 was paid in. The capital was increased to $100,000 in May, 1900; in 1902 to $122,250; in 1904 to $200,000. During 1904 the company moved to Minneapolis and was reorganized under the Minnnesota laws. In 1906 the capital was increased to $300,000 and $125,000 was contributed to surplus. Of this $125,000, $75,000 represented premium on sale of new stock, and $50,000 was a voluntary contribution from the stockholders. In 1909 the capital was reduced from $300,000 to $200,000 by a transfer to surplus of $100,000. In 1910 the capital was increased to $300,000 by a stock dividend. In 1915 the capital was again increased to $400,000 and $55,000 was paid in to surplus. Par value of stock, $100 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, $156.59; latest sale, 190%. December 31, 1923, the directors owned $78,200 of capital stock. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $50,000; net, $20,000. Conflagration loss San Francisco, 1906, $166,918.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company has made good progress during the last few years, but its early history was rather unsatisfactory. A change in management in 1909 put the company on a much better footing. The company has a reinsurance contract with the Hartford Fire Insurance Company which makes possible a low net retention in proportion to its assets. Underwriting investment results for the past five years: 1923, underwriting loss, $22,863, investment profit, $61,567; 1922, underwriting loss, $86,362, investment profit, $61,670; 1921, underwriting profit, $31,446, investment profit, $69,222; 1920, underwriting loss, $85,230, investment profit, $52,927; 1919, underwriting profit, $142,725, investment profit, $51,636.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: National Board of Fire Underwriters, South-Eastern Underwriters Association, Eastern Union, Western Union, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, National Automobile Underwriters Conference.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Farm, fire, automobile, hail, lightning, profits, reinsurance, rent, sprinkler leakage, tornado and windstorm, use and occupancy.

HISTORICAL DATA

As the Bay State Insurance Company, this organization was incorporated under the laws of Mass. in 1919, and began business in February of that year. The authorized and paid-in capital was $200,000 while a surplus of $430,000 was also contributed. The name of the company was changed from the Bay State Insurance Company to The Old Bay State Insurance Company on March 15, 1919. This step was apparently taken to avoid confusion with existing company titles. The operations of the company have been confined to fire reinsurance. Par value of shares $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $122.77.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The company is closely affiliated with the officers and directors of the Middlesex Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Concord and was organized by interests identified therewith. The president of The Old Bay State Insurance Company is also president of the Middlesex Mutual which latter has been in business since 1826 and bears an excellent reputation in the matter of loss payments. In March, 1923, the company reinsured a large part of its outstanding risks and returned $100 per share to the stockholders, its total surplus remaining over $100,000, after the transaction had been completed. The company is now active only in N. Y. and Mass. The underwriting and investment record is: 1923, underwriting profit, $44,959, investment profit, $13,671; 1922, underwriting loss, $8,624, investment profit, $65,873; 1921, underwriting loss, $472,958, investment profit, $89,738; 1920, underwriting loss, $45,668, investment profit, $36,198; 1919, underwriting loss, $43,436, investment loss, $3,490.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, tornado and windstorm, sprinkler leakage, riot and civil commotion and explosion reinsurance business.

HISTORICAL DATA

As the Commonwealth Fire Insurance Company, this organization was formed in 1917 and later, in July of that year, changed its name to the Peninsular Fire Insurance Company of America. It was incorporated on May 19, 1917, with an authorized capital of $250,000 and in September 1919, this was increased to $1,000,000 through special permission granted by the Michigan Securities Commission for the purpose. The original offices of the company were in Saginaw, but it moved to Grand Rapids in 1919. In December, 1920, the paid up capital was increased to $895,700, and in October, 1921, an examination by the insurance department of Michigan showed an impairment of $351,014 in the then capital of $922,100. It was reported that the promotion expense of the company was excessive. Following the examination by the Michigan Insurance Department, attempts were made to reinsure the company's outstanding liabilities and in December, 1921, th Michigan Department was asked to temporarily take charge o the company. The fire insurance risks were then reinsured in th Globe and Rutgers Fire Insurance Company of New York. Th paid in capital as of December 31, 1922, was $185,349, with surplus addition of $954 made during that year. Par value o shares $50.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The operations of th company were extremely unprofitable and after two years th surplus was wiped out and the capital was impaired by $351,014 Excess reinsurance was evidenced in the 1922 statement of th company for all lines except hail.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Automobile, fire hail, marine, windstorm and tornado.

HISTORICAL DATA

The Philippine Guaranty Co. Inc., was organized in the latter part of the year 1917 under the laws of the Philippine Islands and has since been doing business as a guarantee, marine and fire insurance company. The company was originally organized with a small capital of 125,000 pesos, which capital was later increased at various dates up to 500,000 pesos, and at the close of the year 1922, total assets amounted to 1,142,067.92 pesos, after paying every year since its organization a cash dividend of 10% a year. Behind the company are some of the strongest and old established corncens in the Philippine Islands. It has successfully passed through the great post war slump by careful and conservative selection of risks and by extreme conservatism in all other lines. It is rated as one of the sound and strong local insurance companies.

HISTORICAL DATA

Organized under the laws of Conn., this company was incorporated in May, 1854, and began business in June of the same year. The authorized capital at inception was $100,000 and capital increases since that time have been as follows: in 1854 to $200,000; in 1859 to $400,000; in 1864 to $600,000; in 1871 received for assessment on capital, $300,000; in 1876 capital increased to $1,000,000. in 1881 to $2,000,000; in 1913 to $5,000,000; in 1919 to $10,000,000. In 1912 the Phoenix Insurance Company acquired control of the Equitable Fire & Marine Insurance Company of Providence and organized a holding company known as the Equitable Securities Company. It secured control of the Connecticut Fire Insurance Company, whose capital was $1,000,000, in 1913 and formed another holding company called the Phoenix Securities Company. The two holding companies were combined in October 1915, the Equitable Securities Company being abolished and the Phoenix Securities Company acquiring its assets. HISTORICAL DATA

Incorporated on February 10, 1851, this company began business in May, 1851, with an authorized capital of $100,000. Its original title was the Pittsburgh Life Insurance Company, the charter being afterward amended and the name changed to the Pittsburgh Life, Fire and Marine Insurance Company. The second change in name occurred a short time following, and the company then became the Pittsburgh Insurance Company. Its present title was acquired by charter amendment in March 1910 and the authorized capital was increased to $200,000. The name then became, and since has been, the Pittsburgh Fire Insurance Company. In 1910 new stock was issued and $50,000 was transferred to the surplus. Control of the company was secured by interests, identified with the North Branch Fire Insurance Company of Sunbury, and the City Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, in 1918. This management obtained until April, 1920, when control passed to the executives of the Firemen & Mechanics Insurance Co. of Indianapolis, Ind. Following the reorganization which resulted, Edson T. Wood, president of the Firemen & Mechanics became president of the Pittsburgh Fire. In 1921 the officials of the Marquette National Insurance Co. of Chicago acquired control of the Pittsburgh Fire and the president of that company became chairman of the board, while Francis Matre, one of its directors, became president. In November, 1923, capital was reduced to $100,000, by reducing the par value of each share of stock, from $50 to $25 per share and $100,000 contributed to surplus. Capital was immediately increased to $200,000 by the issuance of 4,000 new shares of stock at a par value of $25 per share, contribution $100,000 to capital and $50,000 to surplus, the new stock being sold at $37.50 per share. Par value of shares $50; book value, December 31, 1923, 173.71%; latest sale, 180%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $50,000; December 31, 1923, directors owned, $9,100 of stock.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company's reputation regarding loss settlements is excellent. Its general management is now in the same hands as that of the Marquette National Fire, and the Great Western Fire of Chicago. Much of the stock is in the hands of the directors of the latter. In connection with the North Branch Fire Insurance Co. and the City Insurance Co., the Pittsburgh Fire guaranteed policies under the name of Pennsylvania Underwriters, but this practice was discontinued in 1920. It also at one time guaranteed policies under the name Empire Underwriters together with the Peninsular Fire Insurance Co., Michigan. In April 1921, the outstanding risks of the Mid West Fire Insurance Co., of Quincy, Ill., were reinsured in the Pittsburgh Fire. The company's underwriting and investments gain and loss record for the past five years is as follows: 1923, underwriting profit, $93,902, investment profit, $10,266; 1922, underwriting loss, $68,490, investment profit, $26,353; 1921, underwriting loss, $32,855; 1920, underwriting loss, $10,608, investment profit, $30,861; 1919, underwriting loss, $37,346, investment profit, $14,884.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: National Board of Fire Underwriters, Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Western Insurance Bureau.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, lightning, tornado and wind storm, use and occupancy.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was licensed by special act of Congress in 1831. Its operations were confined to the District of Columbia until 1899, when it absorbed the Lincoln Fire Insurance Co. of Washington. The capital was then increased from $75,500 to $200,000 and the company began writing general business in 12 states. It was reinsured, on February 26, 1904 in the North British & Mercantile Insurance Co. and previous to this, in 1900, control of the company had passed to John A. Kelly, well-known New York local agent. Attempts at general operation were unprofitable, and on December 1, 1910, outstanding liabilities, except those in Ohio, Mass. and D. C., were reinsured with the Southern Fire Assurance Co. of Toronto. The General Accident Fire & Life Assurance Corporation of Perth, Scotland, purchased control of the company in 1911. Operations were again unprofitable and, in February 1913, outstanding liabilities except those in D. C. were reinsured in the Globe & Rutgers Fire Insurance Co. of New York. Conflagration loss: Baltimore, 1904, $241,893. Par value of shares, $25; book value, December 31, 1923, 276.76%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $200,000; net, $20,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned, $850 of stock.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Thomas C. Moore, vice-president of the company, is an experienced and able executive, having been superintendent of agencies for the Great American Insurance Co. of New York in Canada. Outside of D. C., the operations of the company are in charge of the powerful Crum & Forster group of New York. This management also acts as general agent for the Richmond Fire Insurance Co., the Union Fire Insurance Co., the U. S. Fire Insurance Co., the North River Insurance Co. and others. The Potomac's loss and expense ratios have been slightly above normal, but it made a good underwriting profit in 1918 and 1919. The company now writes a considerable amount of business. The underwriting and investment record for the past five years is: 1923, underwriting profit, $13,681, investment profit, $43,296; 1922, underwriting loss, $39,148, investment profit, $64,912; 1921, underwriting loss, $8,742; 1920, underwriting loss, $7,271, investment profit, $33,914; 1919, underwriting profit, $36,748, investment profit, $26,028.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: National Board of Fire Underwriters.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Automobile, fire, tornado, earthquake, explosion, farm, hail, lightning, profits, reinsurance, rent, use and occupancy.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was licensed to transact a general fire insurance business in November, 1917, having been organized on April 18 of the same year but it now writes only reinsurance. It began with an authorized capital of $400,000, which was all paid in by January 1, 1919 in addition to a surplus of $594,150. In 1919 the paid in capital was increased by $6,500 and the authorized capital was increased $100,000. The stockholders of the company paid in $82,818 in 1920, $69,000 of this being added to the capital, thus bringing the paid in capital up to $475,500. In 1923 the capital was decreased to $237,800. The company was formerly located in Kansas City but subsequently moved to its present location in Topeka. The Preferred Risk Fire Insurance Company does a direct business in Kansas, operating through an organization known as The United Underwriters. The Preferred Risk assumes two-thirds of the liability of each policy written by The United Underwriters and The Sunflower Fire Insurance Company, the other one-third. The company was examined by the Kansas Insurance Department in 1923. Par value of shares $100; book value December 31, 1923, $214.46. Largest amount insured in one hazard; gross, $10,000; net, $10,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned $47,600 of stock.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The management of the company is in good repute and all its personnel are men of extensive insurance experience. The secretary of the company is also member of the board of the Sunflower Fire Insurance Co. of Topeka. Clyde Miller, president of the company, is head of the Miller Live Stock and Investment Co. and bears an excellent reputation. The operational loss ratio has been rather high in the last few years, but previously was normal, although the underwriting results have not been profitable so far. The company's reputation in the settlement of losses has never been questioned. The underwriting and investment loss and gain record of the company is as follows: 1923, underwriting loss, $103,250, investment profit, $51,076; 1922, underwriting profit, $38,391, investment gain, $63,982; 1921, underwriting loss, $253,892, investment profit, $60,022; 1920, underwriting loss, $67,774, investment profit, $29,861; 1919, underwriting loss, $77,862, investment profit, $41,534.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Automobile, crop investment, earthquake, explosion, farm, fire, flood, hail, inland marine, lightning, ocean marine, reinsurance, riot and civil commotion, sprinkler leakage, tornado and windstorm, use and occupancy. The company does a direct business in Cal., operating under the general agency plan. R. S. Jenkins of Los Angeles, Cal., being general agent. All other business written by the Preferred comes by the way of reinsurance.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was incorporated and licensed under the laws of New York, March 25, 1922, and began business May 1 of that year. The authorized, subscribed and paid in capital was $1,000,000; $500,000 was contributed to surplus. In 1923 the capital was reduced by $500,000 and the surplus increased by a like amount. The company is controlled by the Prudential Assurance Company, Ltd., of London, England, considered the largest English company. Stock par value is $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $226.68; December 31, 1923, directors owned $6,500 of stock. The company was examined by the New York Insurance Department in 1923 and writes reinsurance exclusively. The company has filed surety bonds as follows: Ark., $20,000; La., $20,000; Tex., $10,000.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The management of this company is the same as that of the United States Branch of the Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Company, Ltd. C. A. Nottingham, president, and Thomas H. Anderson, vice-president are joint United States managers of the Liverpool & London & Globe and vice-president and president respectively of the Star Insurance Company of America. The secretary and treasurer of this company, Robert H. Williams, is the deputy United States manager of the Liverpool & London & Globe, and is secretary of the Star. Those companies are successful and in excellent repute. The company's underwriting and investment experience for the past two years was as follows: 1923, underwriting loss, $302,925; investment profit, $54,271; 1922, underwriting loss, $181,587, investment profit, $43,690. The underwriting loss for 1922 and 1923 is caused by the large increase in unearned premium reserve. The company's investments are high grade and very well secured. The largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, net, $100,000.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, motor vehicle, inland marine, and transportation, tornado, sprinkler leakage, earthquake, riot, civil commotion and explosion.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized in 1911 and began business as of January 6, 1913 with a paid up capital of $250,000 and surplus of $90,000. In June, 1914 the authorized capital was increased to $300,000 and as of December 31, 1923, outstanding capital stock reduced to $275,000 by retiring 42 shares. The last issue of stock was to be sold at $250 per share, a portion of the premium going to pay the commission of the sales agents and the remainder to surplus. Par value of stock, $100 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, $193.60. As of December 31, 1923, the directors owned $30,130 of capital stock. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $66,000. This company guarantees the policies of the Rocky Mountain Fire Underwriters.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: During 1917 a radical change in management took place and since that time the company has made better progress. During September, 1922, this company completed a reinsurance contract with the Hartford Fire Insurance Co., by which the latter took over the direct liabilities in Mont. of the Rocky Mountain Fire. It further provided that the Hartford, under a continuing treaty, would reinsure a portion of the excess liability of the Rocky Mountain Fire on direct business written after September 1, 1922. This treaty has no bearing on the management of the company nor its agency plant and continues business the same as formerly. Underwriting and investment results for the past five years: 1923, underwriting profit, $120,931, investment loss, $105,701; 1922, underwriting profit, $20,284, investment profit, $17,162; 1921, underwriting loss, $38,169, investment profit, $46,896; 1920, underwriting loss, $2,351, investment profit, $27,231; 1919, underwriting loss, $5,392, investment profit, $40,084.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Automobile, earthquake, explosion, farm, fire, hail, lightning, reinsurance, rent, riot, and civil commotion, sprinkler leakage, tornado and windstorm.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was originally incorporated as a mutual company, in 1853. In 1865, the charter was changed by striking out the word "mutual." The company was organized as a stock company and began business with a capital stock authorized $2,000,000, subscribed $500,000, and 15%, or $75,000, paid in in cash. After the Chicago fire, of 1871, the company was embarrassed by having, substantially $140,000 in losses in that fire. A reorganization took place, with a capital of $400,000 fully paid up. In 1882, this capital was increased by the addition of $100.000, making it $500,000 fully paid up. No surplus was ever paid in. The organizers, in 1865, were thirteen of the prominent business men of St. Paul, each taking a considerable portion of the stock. There were no expenses involved. There are no particularly interesting features in the company's career, except that in the San Francisco fire it sustained a loss of $1,230,000, which it paid promptly and in full. The first president was J. C. Burbank, who continued in office until 1876, and was succeeded by Chas. H. Bigelow, who remained in office until 1911. He was succeeded by his son, F. R. Bigelow, who is still president. The first secretary was S. S. Eaton, who was succeeded by Chas. A. Eaton, and he by Chas. B. Gilbert in 1882, and Mr. Gilbert by A. W. Perry in 1894. Following Mr. Perry's death in 1924, the present secretaries were elected. There have been no amalgamations, merging or reinsurances. The capital stock of the company was increased July 1, 1914, by a transfer of $500,000 from surplus to capital account, making the capital $1,000,000. In 1920, the capital stock was increased to $2,000,000 by the payment by the stockholders of $1,000,000 additional capital, at par. The capital stock was increased to $4,000,000, November, 1923, by the transfer of $2,000,000 from surplus to capital, at the same time the par value of the stock was reduced to $25 per share. The company is a member of all the leading bureaus and boards in the United States and Canada. It is not controlled by any other company, nor does it control any other companies. It operates the Minnesota Underwriters Agency, through which the St. Paul writes business. Par value of stock, $25 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, 252.16%; latest sale, 300%. As of December 31, 1923, the directors owned $521,025 of capital stock. HISTORICAL DATA

This company began business in October, 1911, having been incorporated on September 13, 1911, under the laws of Ga. The authorized capital was $100,000 all of which was paid in at inception, together with a surplus of $50.000. The stock, with a par value of $100 per share, was sold at $150 per share. The capital stock was increased by $100,000 to $200,000 on April 5, 1920, and was allotted to the stockholders in proportion to their holdings at $70 per share, a stock dividend of $30,000 being then declared on stock subscribed. This new issue of stock was paid for on April 5 and April 6, 1920, the unsubscribed stock being sold at the rate of $150 per share, thus adding more than $1,000 to the surplus. Par value of shares, $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $141.99; latest sale, 125%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $50,000; net, $15,000; December 31, 1923, directors owned $168,000 of stock.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The managerial control of this company is vested in the secretary, who is an insurance underwriter of long experience. Until 1920 the company wrote business in Ga. only, but has since gone into 18 other states and the volume of writings has been largely augmented. The loss ratio is low and its reputation in the matter of loss payments is excellent. The company's volume of business was again increased in 1921, but a high loss ratio and expense ratio above normal brought about an underwriting loss for that year. The underwriting and investment results for the past five years are: 1923, underwriting loss, $32,774, investment profit, $18,542; 1922, underwriting loss, $26,943, investment profit, $26,617; 1921, underwriting loss, $33,008; 1920, underwriting loss, $13,097, investment profit, $11,907; 1919, underwriting profit, $16,078, investment profit, $5,903.

BOARD MEMBERSHIP: National Board of Fire Underwriters.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Explosion, fire, lightning, profits, reinsurance, rent, riot and civil commotion, sprinkler leakage, tornado and windstorm, use and occupancy.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company began business in 1844 with a paid in capital of $100,000, having been incorporated in 1841 under the laws of Conn., with an authorized capital of $100,000. The growth of the company was rapid and capital increases were successively as follows: in 1887 from $200,000 to $250,000; in 1899 to $300,000; in 1903 by $100,000 to $400,000; in 1905 to $500,000; in 1910 to $700,000, the new stock netting a premium of $200,000; in 1911 to $1,000,000 and $300,000 realized as premium on the new stock issued. In 1893 there was a decrease in capital of $50,000, which was done away with by the subsequent increase in 1899. In 1916, the capital was reduced to $312,000, but was later increased to the stated figure of $500,000, the new stock netting a premium of $112,500. In 1906 the original par value of $40 per share was reduced to $25 per share. The amounts of surplus paid in from time to time were: in 1893, $50,000; in 1906, $300,000; in 1910, $200,000 and in 1911 $300,000. It guarantees policies issued under the name of New Haven Underwriters. Par value of shares, $25; book value, December 31, 1923, 309.50%; latest sale 200%. Conflagration losses: Baltimore, 1904, $786; San Francisco, 1906, $417,194. Value of special deposits: Ga., $9,150; Va., $49,750; N. C., $21,400. December 31, 1923, directors owned more than $146,925 of stock.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The company is ably and successfully managed, its executives being all men of long insurance experience. It has gradually grown as regards volume of business written and the rate of growth has been both normal and satisfactory. Prominent business men and financiers form the interests behind it, and the operations of the company show the influence of their judgment. The company's reputation in the matter of loss payments is excellent and its volume of business as compared with the present capital and surplus is large. In 1919 the loss ratio experiencedwas low and the result was a substantial gain in underwriting profit. In later years the investment profits much more than balanced the underwriting loss. The underwriting and investment gain and loss record for the past five years is as follows: 1923, underwriting loss, $130,127, investment profit, $449,373; 1922, underwriting loss, $130,631, investment profit, $666,912; 1921, underwriting loss, $324,881, investment profit, $499,348; 1920, underwriting loss, $65,544, investment profit, $173,314; 1919, underwriting profit. $363,270, investment profit. $126,765.

HISTORICAL DATA

With an authorized capital of $100,000 of which $25,000 was paid in, this company began business November 1, 1883. A declared stock dividend of $75,000 in 1898, increased the paid in capital to $100,000, and in January 1911 a further increase raised the capital to $200,000. In that year also $50,000 was added to the surplus and later in the year another $25,000 surplus was paid in. The paid up capital of the company, since that time, has remained static, the net surplus now being $211,588. Par value of shares $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $246.60. December 31, 1923, directors owned more than $50,000 of stock.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: This company bears an excellent reputation in the matter of loss payments. Its loss rario has been low and its management is able and experienced. During 1921, a precarious year for fire insurance companies, the Security Fire gained over $32,000 from its underwriting operations and in 1922 and 1923 it also made gains on its underwriting. The company is very careful in its selection of risks and this has been reflected in its business record. The policy of the directorate is not to hold the company too closely, the directors owning approximately one quarter of the capital stock. The underwriting and investment results for the past five years have been as follows: 1923, underwriting profit, $55,921, investment profit, $61,707; 1922, underwriting profit, $22,512, investment profit, $5,112; 1921, underwriting profit, $32,709, investment profit, $42,175; 1920, underwriting loss, $9,376, investment profit, $43,280; 1919, underwriting profit, $24,920; investment profit, $30,103.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: National Board of Fire Underwriters, Western Insurance Bureau.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Automobile, fire and tornado.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized with an authorized capital of $100,000 and began business in June 1910. As of December 31, 1917, $50,000 capital and $50,000 surplus had been paid in, the stock being subscribed at $20 per share. An increase in the capital stock took place in 1918, when this item was raised to $200,000 by the sale of $100,000 new stock at $150 per share and by the transfer of $50,000 from the surplus. This transaction added $100,000 to the capital and $50,000 to the surplus. Prior to 1917, the authorized capital stock of $100,000 had had $24,206 paid in as of December 31, 1910, while during 1911 the paid up capital was increased to $50,000 and $25,000 surplus was paid in. Value of special deposits, $9,800 in S. C. Par value of shares $100; book value, December 31, 1923, $128.16; latest sale 117%. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $25,000; net, $5,000. December 31, 1923 directors owned $23,396 of stock.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Edwin G. Seibels of Seibels, Bruce & Co., organized the South Carolina Insurance Co., and is manager therefor. He is also manager of the Cotton Fire & Marine Underwriters of New York, which agency acts as managers for several companies throughout the Southern States. Mr. Seibels has an excellent reputation and is an insurance man of more than ordinary experience. The volume of business of this company increased largely during the years 1918, 1919 and 1920 and in 1918 the company showed a good underwriting profit. Underwriting losses in 1919 and 1920 were balanced by increases in the unearned premium reserve. The reputation of the company in the matter of loss payments is unquestioned. The underwriting and investment results for the past five years are: 1923, underwriting loss, $20,288; investment profit, $27,217; 1922, underwriting loss $34,229, investment profit, $36,442; 1921, underwriting loss, $31,618; 1920, underwriting loss, $12,242, investment profit, $27,997; 1919, underwriting loss, $37,804, investment profit, $18,253.

HISTORICAL DATA

his company was organized, 1919, in California, with an horized capital of $100,000, which has been entirely paid up, g with $25,000 surplus derived from the premium on stock at $125 a share, par value, $100. J. L. Blodgett, of the J. L. dgett Company, an automobile finance institution, was the organizer, and the majority stock of the company is now owned by the Blodgett Finance Corporation. The company has no promotional expense. In 1923, stockholders contributed $75,000 to surplus, and capital stock was increased $150,000 to $250,000 by sale of new stock. The California Insurance Department's audit of this company's books, in 1921, revealed a satisfactory condition. Stock, par value, $100 a share; book value, December 31, 1923, $101.11.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE—Doing automobile insurance exclusively for the J. L. Blodgett Company, this company entered the field with very good prospects for a substantial amount of business. Income increased considerably in 1921 over 1920, but fell off again in 1922 with the general depression in the automobile industry. The prerauim income for 1923 is more than six times that of 1922. This business was acquired at average expense, and a normal ratio on the written basis. On an earned basis, the company's expenses were high and resulted in the showing of an underwriting loss. A small investment profit was realized, but the surplus decreased over $25,000. A stockholder's contribution of $75,000 was offset by a stockholder's dividend of the same amount. The company has built up a satisfactory amount of assets, half of this amount on December 31 last having been in cash. Reserves are on a satisfactory basis, but the surplus appears to be too small for the volume of business transacted. The entire amount of the company's capital stock is owned by directors. The company was examined December 31, 1923, by the California Insurance Department.

Underwriting and investment results for years: 1923, underwriting loss, $32,325; investment profit, $6,484; 1922, underwriting loss, $14,286; investment profit, $7,493; 1921, underwriting loss, $12,074; investment profit, $6,473.

HISTORICAL DATA

The company was organized November 10, 1871, as the Humboldt Fire Insurance Company. In 1879 its capital was increased from $61,098 to $81,732. Increases in capital for subsequent years were as follows: in 1880 from $81,732 to $100,000; in 1904 from $100,000 to $200,000 when $50,000 of surplus was also paid in; in 1910 from $200,000 to $300,000 and $77,445 premium on new stock added to surplus. In 1910 the Allegheny Fire Insurance Company was merged with the Humboldt and its facilities enlarged. Increases in 1918 brought the capital to $400,000 and added $25,000 to the surplus. Name changed in 1918 from the Humboldt Fire to Superior Fire Insurance Company. In 1919 capital rose to $500,000 and $100,000 added to surplus; in 1920 capital became $600,000 and $80,000 added to surplus. In 1921 the company purchased the Western Insurance Company and absorbed its agency plant; capital increased to $700,000 in that year and $80,000 added to surplus. In 1922 capital increased to $800,000 and $80,000 was added to surplus. In 1923 $200,000 new capital was paid in and $160,000 was added to surplus which made the capital $1,000,000. Stock, par value, $50; book value, December 31, 1923, 173.14%; latest sale, 220%.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The Superior Fire Insurance Company is soundly and ably managed, as is witnessed by the record of capital increases and gains in surplus during past years. The company is not controlled by any other organization nor does it control any. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000; net, $75,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned $208,300 of stock. HISTORICAL DATA

This company was organized in 1913, with a paid up capital of $500,000 and a like manner of surplus. A rather large proportion of its surplus was used for organization expenses. Par value of stock $10 per share; book value, December 31, 1923, 134.44%; latest sale, 120%. In 1913, this company absorbed the Middle West Fire Insurance Company, Valley City, N. D. The company absorbed the United American Fire Insurance Company of Milwaukee during the same year. The expense of these transactions seriously depleted its surplus for a time. The company guarantees its policy of the Middle West Fire Underwriters Agency and the United American Underwriters Agency. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $50,000; net, $10,000, December 31, 1923, directors owned $7,670 of capital stock. The company was examined by the Minnesota Insurance Department in 1923.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: In February, 1921 control of this company was purchased by interests identified with the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, the officers of which control its underwriting policy. The company, therefore, enjoys the same high reputation as does the Hartford Fire. Underwriting and investment results for the past few years: 1923, underwriting loss, $82,372, investment profit, $20,572; 1922, underwriting loss, $97,467, investment profit, $50,716; 1921, underwriting profit, $18,193, investment profit, $36,157.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: National Board of Fire Underwriters, South-Eastern Underwriters Association, Western Union, Eastern Union, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, National Auto Underwriters Co.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Automobile, farm, fire, hail, inland marine, lightning, reinsurance, rent, sprinkler leakage, tornado and windstorm, use and occupancy.

HISTORICAL DATA

The company began business in January 1, 1920, having been incorporated August 20, 1919, with an authorized, subscribed and paid in capital stock of $500,000. Since its inception the surplus paid in from time to time has reached $500,000. More than three-fourths of the capital stock of the Victory Fire is owned by the present stockholders of the Fire Association of Philadelphia. Both companies are conducted by the same executive staff and served by the same special and general agents and managers, the salaries and incidental expenses being equally divided, although the companies are separate and distinct institutions. In 1924 capital increased from $500,000 to $1,000,000 and $500,000 added to surplus. The value of the stock at organization was $100, given as $50 par and $50 surplus. At present the par value of shares is $50; book value, December 31, 1923, 143.59%; latest sale, 200%. Values of special deposits: Va., $24,750; Ga., $10,800; N. M., $10,000; N. C., $11,220.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The affiliation of the Victory Insurance Company with the Fire Association of Philadelphia, and the management division as detailed, has had the effect of keeping down overhead expenses while at the same time increasing facilities for business. The company is ably directed and rapidly reacted from the difficulties surrounding the launching of any organization. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000; net, $25,000. December 31, 1923, directors owned $27,400 of stock. Underwriting and investment record since the beginning of the company: 1923, underwriting loss, $85,156, investment profit, $41,626; 1922, underwriting profit, $61,651; investment profit, $79,495; 1921, underwriting loss, $115,515, investment profit, $75,541; 1920, underwriting loss, $228,554, investment profit, $65,450.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: Eastern Union, Western Union, National Board of Fire Underwriters, etc.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Automobile, earthquake, explosion, fire, lightning, riot and civil commotion, sprinkler leakage, tornado and windstorm, and use and occupancy.

Interests identified with this company also control the American & Foreign Insurance Co. Deposits in states: Mass., $305,000; N. Y., $244,000; Ohio, $100,000. Conflagration loss: Baltimore, 1904, $19,985. Largest amount insured in one hazard, $65,000.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The United States business of this strong and successful foreign company has been well managed and successful. A sound and conservative policy of underwriting has been followed by W. L. H. Simpson, United States manager, who also occupies a similar capacity for the Ocean Marine and the Reliance Marine Insurance Companies of England, and is in addition president of the American & Foreign Insurance Company. Underwriting and investment results for the past five years: 1923, underwriting profit, $281,938, investment profit, $72,956; 1922, underwriting profit, $439,042, investment profit, $210,622; 1921, underwriting profit, $233,041, investment profit, $206,297; 1920, underwriting loss, $333,572, investment profit, $37,796; 1919, underwriting loss, $262,375, investment profit, $54,698. The company's investments are very well secured for the most part in Government Bonds; interest yield from investments is at a substantial rate. The company has an estimable loss paying reputation.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Ocean marine, motor vehicle, inland navigation and transportation with subdivisions including tourists' baggage and registered mail.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was founded in England, in 1904, and entered the United States May 1, 1920. Since that time, it has developed into a considerable territory following a definite schedule of expansion. The home company's authorized capital is £1,000,000, of which on last available information £700,000 was the amount subscribed and £175,000 paid in. By having the same management, Henry W. Brown & Co., New York and Philadelphia, the British General is executively allied in its United States business with the Century Insurance Co., Ltd., Edinburgh, Scotland, and the Independence Insurance Co., of Philadelphia, Pa. Values of deposits: N. Y., $225,000; Ohio, $105,000.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Henry W. Brown & Co., underwriters for the British General's American business have an excellent reputation for sound and conservative measures of progressive character. Underwriting and investment results reported by the British General since entering the United States: 1923, underwriting loss, $5,875, investment profit, $26,638; 1922, underwriting profit, $9,816, investment profit, $58,791; 1921, underwriting loss, $16,938, investment profit, $41,468; 1920, underwriting loss, $45,875; investment profit, $20,350. Underwriting results are plainly indicative of the steadily improving and progressing trend of business. The United States branch of the company has ample operating surplus. Investments are well secured, mostly in government bonds, and remunerative. The largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000; net, $40,000. The company's general agent in Canada is Thomas F. Dobbin, 17 St. John Street, Montreal.

BOARD MEMBERSHIP: National Board of Fire Underwriters.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire and motor vehicle; it also accepts reinsurance in these lines.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company was established in 1885, in Scotland and was originally designed to write only health insurance, but later instituted life, fire and general casualty lines. Authorized capital is £900,000 of which according to last available report, £315,000 was the amount subscribed and £105,000 paid in. The Friends Provident Institution of London purchased control of the Century in 1918; the two companies continuing in separate operation except for a certain interlocking of directorates. The Century began writing surplus lines in the United States late in 1908, but did not begin writing a full line of business through its United States branch until October, 1911. Henry W. Brown & Company, New York and Philadelphia are the company's United States managers.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: Under the capable management of Henry W. Brown & Co., this company's business in the United States has shown some progress. Premium income advanced regularly for some years although a slight falling off was reported in business of 1922 and 1923. Charles S. Conklin vice-president of the Assurance Company of America directs the underwriting activities of his own company and also the foreign companies represented by Henry W. Brown & Company, the Century included among them. Henry W. Brown & Company also manage United States business of the British General Insurance Company and controls the Independence Insurance Company of Philadelphia. Underwriting and investment results in the last five years: 1923, underwriting profit, $33,217, investment profit, $36,135; 1922, underwriting loss, $5,932; investment profit, $89,899; 1921, underwriting loss, $58,781, investment profit, $126,501; 1920, underwriting loss, $13,584; investment profit, $12,663; 1919, underwriting profit, $20,161, investment profit, $5,464. Management has been economical. Loss ratio has averaged normal for a decade. The Century has high grade investments and an estimable loss paying record. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000; net, $40,000.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: National Board of Fire Underwriters. Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company has grown to the front rank of importance in the insurance business of Norway since its founding in 1847. The company entered the United States early in 1918 to transac. reinsurance only. Subscribed capital is reported to be Kr. 5,000,000, with Kr. 4,000,000 paid in. The Board of Directors: H Ingstad, barrister at law; Fr. Rustad, marshal of the Royal Court; H. Olsen, Consul General, W. R. Pihl, C.E ; Chr. Hansson, managing director; K. B. Lindholm, O. Smedal. The company is a member of the well-known Svea group, which includes also the Hudson, New York, Svea, Gothenburg, and the Scandinavian American, of Christiania.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: J. M. Wennstrom is United States manager as he is also for the the Svea Fire and Life, as well as being president of the Hudson Insurance Company. Under this management the company has built up a large volume of business with substantially increasing premium income prior to 1921 when it fell off somewhat from the high levels reached in 1919 and 1920. Underwriting investment results since beginning business in the United States: 1923, underwriting profit, $155,156, investment loss, $11,298; 1922, underwriting profit, $111,088; investment profit, $557,532; 1921, underwriting loss, $414,719, investment profit, $685,724; 1920, underwriting loss, $297,029, investment profit, $9,810; 1919, underwriting profit, $71,224, investment profit, $84,229. The company's investments are high grade and well secured. The underwriting losses of its early years in this country have been caused largely by the necessity for setting up required reserves, as well as to the high loss ratios of recent years, but they have been more than offset by the substantial income from investments. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross and net, $20,000. The New York Insurance Department last examined the company in 1922. Following a definite schedule of expansion, the company's activities now cover 18 of the United States.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Fire, lightning, explosion, riot and civil commotion, sprinkler leakage, tornado and windstorm.

HISTORICAL DATA

This company began operating in the United States, commencing on the Pacific Coast, in 1884, having been established in Sweden in 1866. Its home office statement, December 31, 1923, shows a subscribed capital of 12,000,000 kronen with 106,473,525 kronen of assets. Development of its activities in this country was rapid and in 1895 its United States head office was moved to New York and underwriting facilities extended. In the San Francisco fire of 1906 the company paid a conflagration loss of $1,315,377 which was defrayed by remittances from the home office. Largest amount insured in one hazard, gross, $100,000 net, $30,000. Conflagration losses: San Francisco, 1906, $1,315,377. San Francisco losses were paid by remittances from home office. Deposit in Ga., $10,600 N. C., $10,100 Ohio, $100,000; N. Y., $214,000.

ADMINISTRATION AND REPUTE: The management at the head of this company is experienced and able and the reputation of the organization has been sustained. Its action during the San Francisco conflagration established its renown in the matter of loss payments. The United States branch of the Christiania General Insurance Company of Christiania, Norway, is under the same executive direction and the Svea Fire & Life controls the Hudson Insurance Company of New York, the managerial affairs being jointly shared. The company's operational costs have been somewhat large but its careful investments and favorable loss ratio have more than offset this. The following record of investment and underwriting losses and gains over a period of five years bears out this contention: 1923, underwriting loss, $6,104, investment profit, $72,742; 1922, underwriting loss, $70,718, investment profit, $149,299; 1921, underwriting loss, $4,730, investment profit, $257,590; 1920, underwriting loss, $175,874, investment profit, $118,904; 1919, underwriting profit, $108,839, investment profit, $38,464.

BOARD MEMBERSHIPS: Southeastern Underwriters Association, Eastern Union, Board of Underwriters of Pacific and Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Western Union, National Board of Fire Underwriters.

CLASSES OF INSURANCE WRITTEN: Explosion, fire, lightning, riot and civil commotion, sprinkler leakage, tornado and windstorm, use and occupancy.
